Donna (Younkin) Logan's Notebooks

In memory of Donna (Younkin) Logan
January 4, 2006

From the late 1980s until 1996, Donna (Younkin) Logan organized her research findings into three-ring binders devoted to many of the earliest Younkin pioneers of southwestern Pennsylvania: Henry, Jacob, Frederick, John, Herman as well as Rudolph of Ohio, and cousins in Northampton County, PA. After Donna's untimely death on January 4, 2006, Donna's sister Jean entrusted genealogist Mark A. Miner with Donna's three-ring binders. The expectation was that Younkin cousins would scan the binders in high resolution and share the binders electronically and widely.

Donna's sister Jean and her husband Jim Miller initially scanned the four volumes of Jacob Younkin books. From 2018 to 2020, many Younkin cousins helped with the scanning of thousands of pages in Donna's other three-ring binders. Linda Marker of Rockwood, PA placed the resulting folders of JPEG graphic image files in a OneDrive folder. She distributed links to the OneDrive folder online at the National Younkin Younken Youngkin Family Reunion page on Facebook.

In late 2024, Mark T. Youngkin combined hundreds of image files in each scanned book folder creating one PDF file for each of Donna's nine notebook binders or books. He added a cover page, links page, and index, if available, then compressed each PDF book file to a manageable size. He placed the nine reduced size PDF files in a OneDrive folder with the link to the folder distributed in a Facebook document and uploaded the PDF files to the Internet Archive.

These Younkin files were uploaded to Linda's one drive account, and will be available as long as the account is paid. This is a Microsoft account and will allow you to view, and download.

Remember, this is Donna's life work, her passion. Please respect that.

And, please remember the many hours of mind-numbing scanning went into the preservation of her work.

Jacob Younkin Books The Jacob files were lovingly scanned by Donna's sister Jean, and her husband, Jim Miller. There are four volumes, and 2 pages of explanations.

Dear Donna,

I feel like I already know you, and I haven't even met you. My Dad and Andree talked so much about you and the family reunion that I can hardly wait until next year to join in on the Younkin family reunion.

I must truly be a Younkin descendant, because I did receive the first Younkin News Bulletin, put it aside to respond to later, then forgot, then got another one, and so on and so on. I'm really glad that Dad and Andree were more on the ball than myself and joined in on the fun and frolic of the reunion. I really appreciated the back orders of the YNB, and the info that you sent me.

I just came back from Iowa yesterday after a short visit with my dad. I could hardly wait to start reading the YNB and have really enjoyed them. I especially enjoy the IMAY article by your husband, Larry. I think that Larry and my husband, Ed, would get along great. Ed loves golfing and really doesn't care that much for genealogy. He rather tolerates my interest in it, but he's a good sport. I really love genealogy. I don't have the time for it now, since I work full time, but when I can, I really go full force.

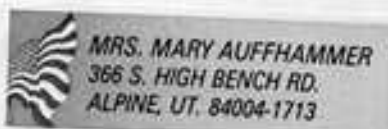

I have enclosed some family group sheets for you on my family line. I hope this helps you to see where I tie into the Younkin family. If you have any questions, please feel free to write to me. I hope I'll be able to answer them. I don't have any family group sheets done on the Younkin line. Several years ago I was researching that line, but I think it got too confusing. My focus has been mostly on MCNEILL lines.

It amazes me that you find the time to do research, answer letters, and still get out a YNB every few months. How do you do it? You must have people working for you.

While I was in Iowa, my son and his wife had their second child, a boy, named Christian Lee Auffhammer. I will have to share a picture, when I get one, for your YNB.

Your cousin,

Mary

Younkin History

By David Younkin

Casper Harbaugh and Phillip were teamsters in Gen. Braddock's Expedition against Pittsburgh and, when the French and Indians ambushed them near what is now Braddock, these two men cut their horses loose, and on horseback, escaped.

They were ordered by General Braddock to turn their teams and follow in the retreat but, in the confusion in the thicket where they were surprised, they could not manage to get their teams and wagons around. So to save their scalps they beat it on horseback and lived to tell the story.

Afterwards they settled Somerset County around about Centreville.

This Casper Harbaugh's daughter married a Mr. Weimer and their daughter married Henry Younkin, the father of David Younkin (grandfather).

We have been reading the history of Somerset County and I thought I would give this to you.

*Rev: Charlotte & Aileen - This is David F. (son of Elias Pitt Younkin)
This was in the Younkin file at the Historical Society.
I copied this several years ago. Thought you might like it.*

History of County Townships Is Told

All of what is now Somerset County located west of the summit of the Allegheny Mountain is part of the land purchased by the Penns in 1768. The six townships east of the mountain were part of the purchase of 1754. In 1768 this land area was all part of Cumberland County. In 1771, Bedford County was formed and the land which is now Somerset County west of the Allegheny mountain was all Brothersvalley Township, of Bedford County. In July of 1773, Turkeyfoot Township was formed from part of Brothersvalley. An article published in the Somerset Herald 17 April 1895

Dell; Daniel L.; Martha M.; Harry M.; and Clarence C. Mrs. Schnably, a most estimable woman, much respected and beloved, passed to the higher life on April 30, 1890.

DAVID YOUNKIN,* one of Milford's industrious farmers, was born in Turkey Foot township, June 14, 1814, son of Henry and Elizabeth (Weiner) Younkin. Both his father and mother were of German descent. His earliest paternal ancestor in America settled in Berks County, Pennsylvania. Henry Younkin's father, Jacob Younkin, accompanied by his brothers John and Frederick, moved from Berks County to Turkey Foot township, and all settled there as pioneers. Jacob married Hannah Nichols, and reared a large family.

Henry Younkin was a lifelong resident of Turkey Foot township, where he acquired both wealth and prominence as an agriculturist, and was a highly respected citizen. His wife, Elizabeth, was a daughter of John Weiner. Her maternal grandfather, Casper Harbaugh, served in the French and Indian War, being under Washington's command at the time of Braddock's defeat. Henry and Elizabeth Younkin were the parents of nine children, eight of whom grew to maturity. Of these, two are now living: David, the subject of this sketch; and Rachel, who resides in Randolph County, Illinois.

David Younkin was educated in the public schools of Turkey Foot and Milford townships. When quite young he left home to live with a Mr. Will, and at the age of twenty he went to Louisiana, where he remained for some time. Upon his return he entered his father's employ as a farm assistant, but later went to Lavansville, Somerset township, where he worked for a year; and for the next seven years he resided in Milford. Purchasing a farm in Lexington, Pa., he made various improvements thereon, including the erection of new buildings, and tilled the soil with prosperous results for sixteen years, at the expiration of which he sold the property. Returning to Milford, he bought at sheriff's sale a two-hundred-acre farm, upon which he built a new and spacious barn. In 1876 he sold one hundred and thirteen acres to his son Fremont, since which time he has tilled about eighty-two acres and carries on general farming.

In 1837 Mr. Younkin was joined in marriage with Maria Culver, daughter of Elijah and Nancy (Scott) Culver, the latter a daughter of Mathias Scott, who built a forge in Milford, probably the first one in the place. Mrs. Younkin has had nine children, eight of whom are living, namely: Lucina, who is unmarried, and lives at the parental home; Ann Elizabeth, who is the wife of Joseph Elder, and lives at Buffalo Mills; Augusta, wife of Alfred Evans, a Justice of the Peace and a prominent resident of Rockwood; Elias P., who resides in Meyersdale; Louisa, who married William McNeal, and resides in Iowa; Josephine, who married Mr. Curotta, and lives in Montreal, P.Q.; Fremont, a prosperous farmer of Milford; and Benton, a resident of this township.

Mines Kept Town Going

Garrett Thrived When Co

By Myrtle McWilliams

Timber, coal and the railroad contributed to the development of the community in southern Somerset County, named for an early president of the B&O—Robert T. Garrett.

Laid out in town lots in 1869 by John Jacob Schell, Isaac Hugas, John T. Roddy and George D. Wolfe of Somerset, the population rapidly increased after completion of the railroad in 1871.

Land Warrant

A land warrant from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to Henry Rhoads, an early pioneer near Brotherton, which was later sold to Matthias Judy in 1778, became the nucleus for the present borough of Garrett.

Judy was born in Switzerland in 1749, and came to this country in 1762. His descendants are still residents of the Garrett community. West of the Buffalo Creek, a family named Weyand owned land which extended over Bald Hill to the Pine Fields.

Other land comprising the Garrett community was earlier granted to Joseph Christner, an immigrant from Germany, who landed in Canada. He obtained a land grant from the government for homesteading land south of the Casselman River.

Land east of the Buffalo Creek was owned by Jacob Walker who had settled in Brothersvalley Township. His grandson, Peter P. H. Walker, had land which is now the center of Garrett.

Early Industry

Early industry included mining, lumbering and the operation of lime kilns. The first mines were opened by Samuel Adams along the Buffalo Valley Railroads in 1876. The Althouse mine was opened in 1899 by Norman Knepper, D. B. Zimmerman and Isaiah Good of Somerset. The Althouse enterprise was later purchased by W. A. Merrill, who in partnership with J. Bruce Walker established Enterprise Coal Co. Other mines included the Hocking Coal Co., Consolidated Coal Co., South Side Coal Mines and The Slope.

Beginning about 1865, lumbering camps and saw mills were evident in the area. Ernest, Delo and Kemp owned a large lumber camp, located between the B&O railroad and the Casselman River. A steam mill was operated by Ed Fox. William B. Shaffer had the first planing mill. William Christner had a saw mill.

smithies were Hezekiah Crissey and Jacob Deal.

Eli Phennicie set up the first shoemaker shop, about 1871. A later shoemaker was Jake Lohr.

Shuck Factory

Logs were dragged from Negro Mountain to a shuck factory by George Simmons, who had the first team of oxen in the area. The factory, operated by Hezekiah Crissey and George DeLezier, made staves for barrels, kegs and casks. They were shaped by leading a horse in circular motion to operate the machinery.

Franklin Enos and E. P. Youngkin had the first general store. Subsequent merchandisers were Lewis Rosenbloom, Lewis Weller, Walk M. Kistler and his father-in-law, a Mr. Shope and W. A. Merrill.

Lime kilns were operated by Zack Christner, Henry Christner and another by W. L. Hoover.

Other early business establishments included Lee Pollard's Leeward Drug Store, James Wilson's skating rink and a bowling alley operated by Samuel Lease. A. J. McKenzie had a bakery around the turn of the century. The First National Bank of Garrett was established in 1903.

For a time the hotel business flourished in the community. Hostel proprietors included Joseph Ringer, Frank Phennicie, Roddy Brothers and a Mr. Reagan. Later owners were Elbridge Kyle, Fred Gobel and James McIntyre. John Kendall operated a restaurant.

Other Businesses

Other early business ventures there included a pop factory, millinery establishments, an art store, music shop, furniture store, shoemaker shops, bakery, broom factory, pool room, shooting gallery, undertaking establishment, grist mill, weaving factory, photographer shop, cigar factory and draymen.

At one time there were two telephone companies in operation. The first telephone operator was William Baker.

The need for additional power for the mining industry resulted in Garrett homes to be among the first in the county to be supplied with electricity. In 1904 W. A. Merrill and J. B. Walker, forming the Garrett Light, Heat and Water Company, began providing electric current to the residents.

The first night of the service, the populace stayed up until 2 a.m. to see the light come on.

TRAINS DOWN TOWN — This picture of business section at the turn of the century and Dr. Pollard. A private enterprise throughout the years, the company eventually became the property of heirs of the Hoover estate and in 1963 was sold to Garrett borough and established as an authority.

At one time there was a citizens band under the direction of Charles Baldwin.

There were two lodges, Knights of Pythias and Knights of the Golden Eagle.

One-Room School

The educational system of the community began with a one-room school on Walker St. When the facility became inadequate, ett's track where trains traveled through the center of the town.

ed Church of Christ, which was Grace Reformed in its early years.

The Reformed congregation was organized about 1894, and services were held in the Methodist Church until Feb. 1898, when that church was purchased by the Reformed congregation. In the spring and summer of 1902, during the pastorate of Rev. E. P. Skyles, the building was repaired and refurnished.

In 1924-25 a new church was built at a cost of $22,000, when the W. A. Merrill family instigated a policy of paying dollar for dollar on all amounts contributed to the building program.

Completion of the present Lutheran Church was in 1914, under the pastorate of Rev. W. H. B. Carney. The building committee consisted of James H. Nedrow, Rudolf Christner, U. S. Lape and William Clements.

Rev. H. H. Wiant was pastor from 1904-1917, Rev. S. C. Stover 1924-25, Rev. F. D. Witmer 1926-51 and Rev. Randall Heckman, Berlin, has served as supply minister since 1966.

Rev. Paul Snyder is present pastor of the United Methodist Church, William Phennicie of the Church of the Brethren and Rev. W. H. Snyder supply for the present Lutheran Church. Robert Robertson is pastor of United Church of Christ.

Fire Department

The community today has an active volunteer fire department and auxiliary, an American Legion Auxiliary and a Garrett School Association of which the PTA was a forerunner. Its aggressive Chamber of Commerce is presently under the leadership of Dorothy Fritz as president.

Coal continues in an important role in Garrett's economy with major enterprises being conducted by W. A. Merrill's Sons Company, including New Enterprise Coal Company, Pine Hill and Ponfeigh mines, under direction of Charles A. Merrill; and Decker Construction Company with Robert Decker as proprietor.

Deep mining has given way to a considerable amount of strip mining throughout the area and its environs. It has been said that strip mining operations have literally "moved a mountain there."

The Homecoming

An outstanding event of the community is its annual Labor Day Homecoming, which was originated in 1945, by a native son, Capt. Will Judy, Chicago, to honor old timers of the area. He was assisted in its early execution by Mrs. Verda (Brant) Herbolsheimer, who later assumed full charge until her death in 1962.

It has since become a community effort, promoted by the First National Bank, and the Chamber of Commerce, with Charles A. Merrill as general chairman.

During the three-day event,

Joseph W. Elder

On March 30, 1900, Joseph Warren Elder, of Buffalo Mills, answered the final summons. He was aged seventy years, five months and eighteen days. Mr. Elder was born in the old fort, generally known as the store house, four miles north of Centerville, Cumberland Valley township, and, in 1838, with his father, moved to Buffalo Mills, where he has since resided. He was the oldest of a family of ten children, five of whom are still living. On April 2, 1893, he was united in marriage to Miss Ann Elizabeth Younkis by Rev. Joseph Hannaberg, at Schellsburg. His wife and two children survive him—Mrs. William H. Elliott, of Yuma, Ariz., and Warren Pendleton Elder, of Columbus, O. Mr. Elder was an upright citizen, respected by all. Though not a member of any church, he was strictly moral and was actuated by Christian principles. Funeral services were held at his home on April 1, conducted by Rev. G. W. Stroup, of West End, assisted by Rev. W. A. Lopley, of Schellsburg. Interment was made in the family cemetery located on the home place.

Don't know what newspaper this appeared in; it was in with some family papers.

I'm impressed with your record-keeping and the printout, Donna. You were so kind to send it to me.

I thought that I sent you a copy of Ann Ely. Your kind's children. I noticed that your printout (pedigree chart) does not have the date of her death. You may not have gotten around to entering it; but, just to make sure you have it, here it is:

died - 20 April, 1900

place - Buffalo, Mills, PA.

Also, she married Joseph Warren Elder on 2 April, 1863 in Schellsburg.

Your advice regarding "Dr. Kim" Bob Meemer is not going unheeded. His letters to me were rather strange, and he appeared to be a crackpot. By the way, he should not be in the L.D.S. FAMILY REGISTRY if he uses it to sell copies of his book. It's unethical, and the church frowns upon such abuse of privilege.

Dec. 13, 1990

Dear Donna,

Can you see that I am smiling? Your letter and the pedigree chart just arrived, and I am so pleased! I'd tried for a year to find out who Maria Sophia CULVER was? I ordered every COVER-CULVER-COULTER etc. film which the Mormon archiver had, also all the available histories on families of early Turkeyfoot & Somerset Co., and I could not find out just who Maria was. In all, I spent over 100 hours looking for her family. Now did the Historical Society of Somerset Co. provide any clues. Now the chart which you sent has some answers, and I accept them on your word — as you seem to be very thorough. Thank you! When I had the old book of S. Co. history, I remember having seen a section on a Scott family, whose was originally "Schott" as some such spelling, and of Germ. origin. But I no longer have use of that book

Hope you and your family have a lovely Christmas.

Appreciatively,
Ardith Jones

Dear Donna,

Thank you for your great letter and the complementary copy of the newsletter. (It's a handsome work!)

Just spent the evening making corrections on pedigree chart and family group sheets re: Younkine. We found more conflicting info on that family than on any other family on the tree. While I was at it, I made up a brief chart for you, as per your request.

Will see to it that the cousins receive your newsletter in my final report.

Appreciatively, Ardith

Donna -

If you spot any grave errors on the chart, please let me know. Or if you know the names of any of the missing folk, I'd appreciate your making note of them on the card.

Thanks! Ardith

Dear Donna,

The postcard arrived today, and, once again, I thank you for your help. There were a couple of dates there which I did not have.

What's this? Betsey Weimer was the d/o JOHN FREDERICK WEIMER? Did he go by the name of Frederick? "Rev. Dr." Bob Weimer told me it was Frederick but wouldn't give out any information on Frederick's parents, etc. (I presumed they were Frederick, Sr. & his spouse [unknown]) Am I all wet?

The newsletter which you sent me (Vol 1, No. 1) had a nifty article on Johann Herman Gungler, not Heinrich. However, I didn't request that you send me the letter on Heinrich because I found, in an extract which E. Bugelsky sent me, a short feature on Heinrich & his 9 children. It was carried on pages 135-6 of the Aug. 1984 Laurel Messenger. So I now know a little more than I did about the family, thanks to several people — including you.

At one time I thought the branch I'm researching descended from Frederick's wife Catherine Fackenthal & did some research on her family. Since they're no longer relevant, I'm sending the enclosed items on to you. Perhaps you'll find them of interest.

I do hope you & your family have a most joyful Christmas! Audith James

Rites Held For Mrs. Berkebile

Her large circle of friends were profoundly shocked by the sudden death of Mrs. H. F. Berkebile who passed away at her home on West Broadway, Rockwood, on Saturday afternoon, May 17.

She was born January 19, 1869 in Cassville, Huntingdon County, Pa.

She was the eldest daughter of Alfred and Victoria Augusta (Younkin) Evans. More than 75 years of her life were spent in the town of Rockwood.

Mrs. Berkebile attended the Rockwood school and was a graduate of State Normal School, Indiana, Pa. She taught school for several years in Rockwood before becoming a telephone operator. Later, she and her only sister, Miss Emma Evans, opened a millinery store which they managed together for many years until her marriage to Harry Fernanda Berkebile in 1911.

Mrs. Berkebile will be remembered as a great lover of flowers and outdoor life. She spent most of her summers working in her rock garden and among her flowers.

She is survived by her husband, H. F. Berkebile; a son, Albert C. Berkebile, and a sister, Miss Emma Evans, all of Rockwood.

Funeral services were conducted at the Berkebile home on Monday afternoon at 2 p. m. by the Rev. J. F. Messenger, pastor of the First Christian Church of Somerset. Burial was made in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery at Rockwood under the direction of Mills & Mickey, 1947.

Ellas P. Younkin, 1913

Ellas P. Younkin, for many years a resident of Meyersdale and vicinity, died at his home on Salisbury street at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. He had been ailing for some months, but his sickness took a serious turn only during the last few days when he suffered severely from some internal disorder believed to be of a cancerous nature. When his condition became alarming all of his absent children were sent for and all were with him when the end came. The last to reach his bedside was his son, Roy, of Wheeling, W. Va., who arrived Saturday evening when his father was still conscious and able to recognize him. He was a member of the Brethren church and died at peace with the world and his Maker.

Mr. Younkin was born on a farm near New Lexington and was 68 years of age. When a young man he was united in marriage with Miss Emma Horner, sister of Milton C. Horner, and lived for some years on a farm near Salisbury Junction adjoining the Horner farm, where he engaged in farming and brick-making. Some years ago he disposed of this property and bought a portion of the old Daniel Beachly property on the South Side, where he lived the remainder of his life, engaging in farming on a small scale, brick-making and draying.

He is survived by his wife, five sons and one daughter, the children being William of Williams, Pa.; Daniel of Moxham, Pa.; Roy of Wheeling, W. Va.; Henry, Charles and Anna, at home. He also leaves several grandchildren. Four sons and one daughter preceded him to the spirit world. He is survived by four sisters and one brother—Mrs. A. V. Evans Mrs. Lucina Kelly, Rockwood; Mrs. Josephine Corotte, Montreal, Canada; Mrs. E. R. McNeill, Ottawa, Iowa; Fremont Younkin, Jerome, Pa., and Benton Younkin, who lives on the old homestead near New Lexington.

All of his sisters and brothers, except the sisters from Canada and Iowa, were here to attend the funeral which was held on Tuesday at 1:30 P. M., the services being conducted by Rev. H. L. Goughnour.

ELIAS P. YOUNKIN.

Elias P. Younkin of the South Side, a life long resident of Somerset county died on Sunday morning, December 7th, at 7:45 o'clock. 1913.

He had been ailing for some weeks and through a complication of diseases the struggle suddenly ceased and life left the tenement of clay. He was born at New Lexington, Somerset county, October 2, 1845, and was aged 68 years, 2 months and 5 days.

On March 4, 1868, he was married to Emma J. Horner. From this union was born a family of eleven children, five of whom preceded him to the grave. He is survived by his wife and the following children:—Miss Anna at home, William of Williams, David F. of Johnstown, Roy of Wheeling, W. Va., Henry and Charles at home; three grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters:—Fredermont and Benton, Mrs. Augusta Evans and Miss Lucina of Rockwood, Mrs. E. R. McNeill of Onawa, Iowa, and Mrs. Josephine Curotte of Montreal, Canada. The funeral services were held from the home on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. He had been a member of the Brethren church and his pastor, Rev. H. L. Goughnour officiated. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Mr. Younkin was the son of David Younkin and Maria Sophia Culver.

For some years Mr. Younkin was engaged in business in Meyersdale, and operated the brick yard plant. For a quarter of a century Mr. Younkin lived in Meyersdale and for forty years he lived in the vicinity of Meyersdale.

In politics Mr. Younkin was a staunch Democrat, and was honored more than once by his fellow citizens in electing him as their representative in the town council.

The family appreciates the many kindnesses received from relatives and friends during the illness and wishes through the columns of The Commercial to all who have thus shown kindness, to express its thanks.

Capsule Chronicle of Garrett Boro

Garrett Borough was incorporated in 1900, first mayor Franklin Enos.

Garrett was the first town in county its size to have brick paved streets, this in 1906; W. A. Merrill was mayor, councilmen were J. H. Judy, W. L. Hoover, Simon Fritz, U. S. Shober, Mahlon Christner; property owners paid two-thirds of cost.

John Jacob Schell, Isaac Hugus, John D. Roddy and George D. Wolf, of Somerset, laid out the town lots in 1869; population grew rapidly after completion of the railroad in 1871.

Henry Rhoads, early pioneer settler at Brotherton, obtained a land warrant from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for 100 acres in December 1774, located on north side of Castleman River and on both sides of Buffalo Lick Creek, which he sold to Matthias Judy in 1778, the site of Garrett Borough.

Matthias Judy was born 1749 in Switzerland; he is included in the first tax assessment list of Brothersvalley dated 1771 as a single freeman; he enlisted in 1776 for service in the Revolutionary War in Captain Cluggage's Company; upon being mustered out of service, he settled here and became the first business leader of the Buffalo Valley, assessed in 1795 with a grist mill and a saw mill on Buffalo Lick Creek; he died here in 1811 survived by his widow Mary Elizabeth Judy and eleven children, two of whom married in the Walter family; he acquired in 1796 an additional 275 acres from the Commonwealth on Buffalo Lick Creek; this later tract he sold 7 May 1811 "by me Matthias /h Judy to Philip Walker," to quote from the deed recorded at Somerset; in his Estate Docket the earlier tract of 100 acres was deeded to Jonathan Judy.

Frederick Walter was born 1767 in Germany; he is named in a muster roll of the Brothersvalley Militia dated 1798, indicating he resided in this area at that early date; he is listed in the 1850 Census here aged 83 years, widower; he married Elizabeth Barndt, a daughter of Nicholas Barndt who was a prominent pioneer farmer in Brothersvalley, he died here in 1853, his widow and sixteen children identified as heirs in court docket; he purchased a portion of the original Rhoads-Judy tract and erected in 1824 the three story building that stands on the hillside above the branch railroad tracks, overlooking Buffalo Creek, where he raised his family of sixteen children, two of whom married in the Judy family: (this property owned in 1966 by Harold Gray).

John Coleman was a blacksmith here in 1820; Hezekiah Crissey and Jacob Deal also were early smithys.

Moses Burkholder built the first house in Garrett.

Franklin Enos and E. P. Younkin had the first general merchandise store here.

Joseph Ringer was first hotel proprietor in 1869.

William Shaffer operated a planing mill in 1870, and Samuel Fox a steam sawmill.

Benjamin Latrobe made the first survey for the railroad about 1837; construction began about 1868; the first railroad engine and train arrived in April 1871.

Frank Meyers, the first station agent, here, used a box car for the station house.

Dr. Price located here in 1881; the same year the Methodist church was started by Rev. Freeman; the Evangelical church was organized by Rev. Van Meter in 1882; Grace Reformed church was established by Rev. Stover in 1894.

Dr. R. T. Pollard located here in 1896, his son Lee operated Leeward Drug Store; James Wilson operated a skating rink; Samuel Lease installed a bowling alley.

W. L. Hoover and W. D. Brant erected the three story business block on Berlin street in 1903, occupied by Lewis Rosenbloom and Lewis Weller clothing store, Walk M. Kistler and his father-in-law Mr. Shope dry goods and shoe store, John Kendall restaurant, the post office, Consol Coal Co. office and a cigar factory, three living quarters apartments; all of these were on first and second floors; W. L. Brant owned a pop factory in the basement which was operated by Phineas Cavanaugh; the third floor space was used by lodges and auxiliaries, K. G. E., K. of P. etc. and also by the local band for practice.

W. A. Merrill had a store in 1892; A. J. McKenzie had a bakery in 1899; Frank Phenicie owned the Riverside Hotel in 1902; Roddy Brothers operated the Fair View Hotel at Berlin and Jefferson streets; Mr. Regan owned the Merchants Hotel at Berlin and Jackson streets, later owners of this latter establishment were Elbridge Kyle, Fred Godel and James McIntyre.

W. D. Baker was the first telephone operator in Garrett.

The First National Bank was organized here in 1903, W. A. Merrill president served in that capacity more than sixty years; the old band stand was torn down to make way for the new bank building.

Joseph (Zep) Christner from Germany in 1794 obtained a land warrant for all the area south of Castleman River for about two miles; the Christner home was the first here to have wooden floors installed.

Zack Christner operated a lime kiln in 1890 at the junction of highways 219 and 653, another was operated by Henry Walter near Ponfeigh along the Berlin Branch railroad tracks, and still another by W. L. Hoover alongside the Ridge Road.

Ernest, Delp & Kemp erected a large lumber camp here about 1870; others engaged in lumber business later included Ed Fox, William Christner, Levi Deal, Lewis Hemminger, Mr. Shunk, W. A. Merrill and S. A. Kendall; Mr. Hoffman owned a fleet of teams which hauled lumber and by-products to Baltimore, Pittsburgh and other points for the market; the by-products produced here includes axle grease, pitch tar and turpentine.

George Simmons used a team of oxen to drag logs from Negro mountain to the shoo factory located along the Castleman River here, operated by Hezekiah Crissey and George Delozier, where the staves to make barrels, kegs and casks were manufactured; Jacob Lohr, a cooper, assembled the staves; farmers used these containers to ship butter to city markets, and lumber industry also used a large number to ship by-products; a horse drawn circular saw was employed to shape the staves, the horse being led around a circle to operate the machinery.

Eli Phenicie came from Scalp Level in 1871 and established a shoemaker shop here.

Samuel Adams shipped the first coal in Buffalo Valley in 1876; Norman Knepper, D. B. Zimmerman and Isaiah Good,

GUEST SPEAKERS

By Sally Miller

During the week of Jan. 11-15, 1971, students in the Human Development class of Somerset Area Senior High School heard several guest speakers from different walks of life.

The speakers were Bishop Irvin Knieriem, Father Samuel Tomaselli, the Rev. Richard Shellenberger, and Gary Rauch, a college philosophy student.

Each speaker, in his own way, tried to give the students a better outlook on life. This was then to serve as a guideline to help students from their own beliefs and ideas about problems in the world today.

Human Development is an elective course offered to seniors. It deals with daily living of people and the problems they encounter.

Forty-five students are enrolled this year. They are instructed by Mrs. Margorie Ankney, senior high home economics teacher.

COUNTY CLERK OF COURTS Walter Williams sent this counterfeit $10 bill to U.S. Treasury agents in Pittsburgh Tuesday for examination and investigation. The bill was discovered by deputies Nora Casebeer (in photo) and Kay Hetzer in a roll of ten and twenty dollar bills used by a Pittsburgh woman to pay a $500 fine on Monday afternoon. D. A. Ogle Won't Run Again For Office

Office holders generally make news when they announce they will run for re-election. President Lyndon Johnson and District Attorney Alexander Ogle are different. Mr. Ogle announced today that he will not be a candidate for re-election. Mr. Ogle said he wanted to devote his full time to his private law practice.

"Due to the increasing volume of work, both in the D.A.'s office and in my private law practice, I find I cannot continue to properly perform both."

Mr. Ogle is serving his eighth year in office. He was first elected in 1963 and then re-elected for a second term in 1967.

"My years of public service as District Attorney have been an enriching and invaluable experience. There have been moments of high drama, excitement and intrigue, but for the most part, only hard work. The many new changes in the criminal law due to interpretations of individuals' constitutional rights and new rules of court procedure have been frustrating on several occasions. They also require more attention to office organization and administration."

"In my opinion these newly interpreted constitutional rights have made it more difficult to

ALEXANDER OGLE

Mr. Ogle is a member of the Bar of the United States Supreme Court as well as the Pennsylvania Supreme and Superior Courts and the Federal Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. In addition, he is a member of both the American and Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Associations.

Prior to assuming his duties as District Attorney, Mr. Ogle served as a United States commissioner for the Western District of Pennsylvania and also served as a Special Assistant Attorney General of Pennsylvania.

He is President of the Somerset County Bar Association and is associated in law practice with John A. Metz, Jr., with offices at 207 North Center Avenue, Somerset, Pennsylvania.

that is I am for sale now, I will give you the first offer: ...
I will sell my whole interest.

The Gay Side of Life

Honor Member of Legion Auxiliary Surprised.—Mrs. Emma Younkin, oldest member of the American Legion Auxiliary in point of years, as well as a charter member of the organization, was genuinely surprised on Tuesday evening while she was visiting at the home of a neighbor, Mrs. J. J. Reynolds, also a member of the Auxiliary, when a number of the members of the organization filed into the Reynolds home to honor their beloved sister upon the occasion of her 83rd birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and singing, in which the aged guest joined as heartily and with as much gusto as any of those present, and was correspondingly active in all of the other numbers on the evening's program. Round after round of laughter and jollity were provoked when Mrs. Reynolds dug up the old family album and miscellaneous assortment of photographs taken in the dim and musty past. This, perhaps, may be said to have been one of the most enjoyable numbers of the evening's program. The birthday cake was baked by Mrs. Irvin Clapper, Mrs. Eugene Bowman and Mrs. Samuel Hostetter. It was a gorgeous affair of three layers, iced in delicate pink and white, and garnished with green leaves. Following the delicious lunch that was served by the ladies, Mrs. Santo Lucente, president of the Legion Auxiliary, presented to their highly honored guest and beloved member, as a token of the esteem of the organization a most beautiful emblem pin of the American Legion Auxiliary. Those present on this most delightful occasion were Mesdames Santo Lucente, Samuel Hostetter, Irvin Clapper, Eugene Bowman, Luther Beal, Albert Lintz, Lawrence Hartle, Ray Engle, Archie Cochrane, Harry Bittner, James Campbell, Annie Gray, Mary Jones, William Stein, Mary Foy, A. S. Kresge, Charles Younkin, Henry Younkin, Mahlon Bowser, Roy Commons, R. D. Cordrey, James Congleton, Harry Larue, Nat Lacavera, Charles Fallon, Norman Fike, Emily Allen and the honored guest, Mrs. Emma Younkin.

Last Sunday a number of the family and friends of Mrs. Emma Younkin went to Shady Nook to hold a party in honor of Mrs. Younkin's 83rd birthday. About forty guests assembled from Meyersdale, Rockwood, Johnstown and Berlin to do her honor. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fernsner and two daughters, Evelyn and Beatrice of Washington, D. C. and Garnett Snyder, a nephew of Mr. Fernsner, also of Washington, and Mrs. Charles H. Younkin and babe daughter, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Younkin's birthday was on Tuesday.

CITIZENRY

MRS. EMILY YOUNKIN

Emily Jane Horner Younkin, widow of Elias P. Younkin, passed peacefully away at her home on Salisbury street, Meyersdale, last Friday afternoon, after a long illness due to infirmities incident to old age, principal of which was a bad condition of the heart.

Mrs. Younkin was born in Summit Township, June 20, 1848, and had reached the age of 85 years, 3 months and 11 days. She was the daughter of William M. and Catherine (Miller) Horner, members of pioneer families of Somerset County whose descendants have ever ranked among the county's best people.

Mrs. Horner's entire life was spent in her native county, and, with the exception of a very short period, in the Meyersdale community. Born and reared on the Horner farm one mile north of Meyersdale, now known as the John C. Kretschman farm, Emily Jane Horner in 1868, at the age of 20 years, became the bride of Elias P. Younkin of Rockwood, who at the time of their marriage was a partner in a general store at Garrett that sold supplies to the men employed in building the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Horner started housekeeping in Garrett, where they lived until the death of her father of typhoid fever in 1872. By the terms of his will, the home farm was divided between her and her brother, Milton C. Horner, her half being the lower portion adjacent to the small settlement known as Salisbury Junction.

With the completion of the railroad in 1871, Mr. Younkin's store business fell off owing to the removal of the railroad laborers. There were no buildings on the portion of the Horner farm that Mrs. Younkin inherited, but after securing possession of the land she and her husband erected a house, barn, etc. on the land, near Salisbury Junction and moved from Garrett to the farm and lived and engaged in farming there for about ten years until they moved to Rockwood where Mr. Younkin was engaged in the lumber business for a short period, after which they purchased the Daniel Beachly homestead on Thomas street, Meyersdale, including the Beachly land along the south bank of Flaughty Creek and the east bank of the Casselman River. On this land Mr. Younkin established a brick yard and engaged in brick-making and farming on a small scale during the remainder of his active years.

While living in the Beachly mansion almost the entire family contracted typhoid fever supposed to have originated from germs that were released by the removal of wall paper that had been placed on the walls of the home after an earlier epidemic of typhoid from which the Beachly had suffered. Several of the Younkin children died from this malady and others were very sick for a long time.

After a few years' residence in the Beachly homestead, Mr. and Mrs. Younkin purchased a home on Salisbury street where they resided the remainder of their lives, Mr. Younkin passing away some years earlier than his wife. (1913)

Mr. and Mrs. Younkin were blessed with eleven children, the first two being girls and the nine succeeding ones boys. The following children survive: Anna Catharine (Mrs. C. W. Fersner) Washington, D. C.; David F., Johnstown, Pa.; Roy E., Erie, Pa.; Henry Clay, South Side Grocery, Meyersdale; Charles Horner Younkin, the youngest of the family, Washington, D. C.

She is also survived by a number of grandchildren and her brother, Milton C. Horner.

The eldest child, Maggie Alberta, lived only about one year. William Arthur, formerly associated with his brother, Henry C., in the grocery business, died in 1916. Milton R., born in 1876, died in 1878. Albert, born in 1878, died in 1880. Alfred Earl, born in 1880 died in 1888. George Harrison, born in 1891, died in 1912.

Owing to the invasion of her home so many times by sickness and death, Mrs. Younkin had many sorrows, but she bore them with Christian fortitude. She had a radiant spirit and infinite patience and courage and trust in God which enabled her to meet all situations with equanimity. There never was a truer wife or mother, a kinder friend or neighbor. Her great mother heart and friendly disposition endeared her to all who knew her. She was, indeed, one of Meyersdale's best beloved residents during all the years that she lived here. She was "Grandma" Younkin to all the children of her neighborhood and all loved and adored her. Her own children, loved, honored and obeyed her and had her constant solicitude.

Mrs. Younkin united with the Church of the Brethren during her girlhood and was one of the charter members of the Main Street Brethren Church. She was the oldest member of the Church and of the Ladies' Bible Class and Women's Missionary Society at the time of her death, and was ever faithful in the service of the church as long as her health permitted.

Mrs. Younkin kept a diary during almost her entire lifetime, and made the last entry in it just one week before her death.

All of her surviving children attended her funeral, some of them having arrived at her bedside before she passed away. Her youngest son, Charles, arrived from Washington, Friday night, in response to a message that she appeared to be nearing death's door, but too late for a parting blessing, as she had lapsed into a state of coma before he was able to see her. Her mind was clear and she was able to converse with relatives and friends until her last day.

She peacefully fell asleep on the eve of the Resurrection morn. She had lived always in the hope of everlasting life in the place prepared for her by her Savior.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Willis E. Ronk, at her late home, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, followed by burial in Union cemetery. A detail of members of Charles E. Kelly Post, American Legion, of which her son, Charles H. Younkin, is a member, acted as pallbearers. The funeral was directed by W. C. Price and was largely attended.

People of Local Note Who Have Died Recently.

1916 William A. Younkin.

William A. Younkin, one of the best known and most highly respected businessmen of Meyersdale, died in Allegany Hospital, Cumberland, Md., at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning from a complication of ailments.

Mr. Younkin had a siege in the same hospital nine months ago when he was operated on for strangulated hernia. His condition was very serious when he was taken to the hospital at that time, but after the operation he speedily recovered and returned to his business in Meyers-dale.

He probably returned to work too soon, or worked too hard, for he began to fail again this summer and on Sunday, July 16th, he was again taken to the hospital, where his condition failed to respond to treatment and he passed away on Wednesday morning in spite of all that medical science or surgical skill could do to save or prolong his life.
Heart trouble and adhesions of the bowels were among his chief ailments.

William A. Younkin was the oldest son of Miles and Emma (Honer) Younkin. He was born on the Younkin farm near Salisbury
June 44 years ago, and lived at Meyersdale and vicinity his entire life, with the exception of 16 years when he was manager of the Savage Fire Brick Co.'s store at Williams. A little less than 2 years ago, Mr.
Younkin resigned his position as store manager at Williams and returned to Meyersdale to go into business in partnership with his brother Henry, under the firm name of Younkin Bros., proprietors of the South Side Grocery on Salisbury Street, in which business he continued until his final illness and death. He had his home in the store building.

Mr. Younkin was married 19 years ago last June to Miss Elizabeth Hilmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
George J. Hilmer. Besides the widow, he is survived by his mother,
Mrs. Emma Younkin, one sister, Mrs.
Anna Forrester, Washington, D. C., and four brothers, David of Johnstown, Roy and Charles of Erie, Pa., and Henry of Meyersdale.

Mr. Younkin was a man of excellent character and frank genial disposition, being well liked by all who knew him. He was a faithful member of the Brethren Church. In the absence of his pastor, Rev. H. L.
Goughnour, the funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. C. Matteson of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the late home of the deceased on Salisbury street at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. Interment in Union cemetery.

NEW TIKE PLANT NOT ABANDONED

Work Progressing with Good Prospects for Its Early Completion.

The work of remodeling and fitting up the old Dancombe brick, tile and pottery plant for a tire factory is progressing nicely. All the heavy timbers have been set, 465 window panes that were stoned out by boys have been replaced, a new roof put on, floors mended, boiler for heating plant installed and much other work done. Grading for the sidetrack to be put in by the B. & O. has been commenced, and a solid concrete floor is now being laid on the ground floor. Workmen have been busy on the plant every day since the property was taken over by the Spring Cushion Tire Company.

Trustee H. H. Lang emphatically denies all reports that the project has been or is going to be abandoned for lack of capital or any other cause.
He states that the financial arrangements have progressed to the point where the knackers and welders can no longer hinder the enterprise. Not only will the factory in Meyersdale be pushed to conclusion, he says, but several others will be built and operated in conjunction with the Meyersdale plant. Two nearby towns have made overtures offering as much as $75,000 to $150,000 in bonuses to get plants located there.

The T. A. Sprague tubeless tire, which is one of the patents held by the company, Mr. Lang says has been brought to perfection and the molds for its manufacture are now being made in New Jersey. Trustee Lang has received some very fine photographs of the finished mechanical drawings, in perspective, showing exactly how this tire will be constructed. It is claimed that this tire will ride as easily as any properly inflated pneumatic tire, and as it is punctureproof it will outlast any other tire on the market.

It is expected that completed tires of the new patent will soon be ready for demonstration. Many orders for Sprague tires have already been booked.

BOY SCOUTS HEED CALL OF THE WILD

Meyersdale Patrol Go Into Camp at Stanton's Dam,
for Two Weeks.

The Meyersdale patrol of Boy
Scouts encamped today at Stanton's Dam where they will remain for two weeks. The tents were set up on Wednesday night by John Grew and a force of Scouts. The camp is ideally situated about fifty feet from the water front and at a place where swimming and bathing are pleasant.

Scout Master T. W. Gurley will not be able to be with the boys during the daytime, but in his absence his place will be filled by Kenneth Housel. Mr. Housel, who saw five years' service in the U. S. Marine Corps, will have full charge of the boys during the daytime and will see to it that Scout regulations are enforced. Scout Master Gurley will be with the Scouts every night, leaving here at 6 o'clock each evening and returning at 8 o'clock next morning.

The Scouts are divided into four patrols of eight each, each patrol being in charge of a patrol master. According to Scout regulations, each Scout is required to do his own work.

Pretty Bride and Popular

Miss Nelle Gordon and Tom A. Weller
Wedded.

One of Meyersdale's pre-eminently pretty and popular young ladies was given in marriage when, at the home of the bride in the Coker apartments on Center Street, on Wednesday evening, July 26, at 8 o'clock,
Thomas Armstrong Weller and Miss Nelle Blanche Gordon knelt amid a bower of ferns and beneath an arch of mountain daisies and, with the ring ceremony, were united in marriage by Rev. J. C. Matteson of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The brother of the groom, Walter Weller, served as best man, and Miss Alice Friedline as maid of honor.

At about 7 o'clock the guests began to arrive and in less than an hour almost a hundred had gathered to witness the happy event. Just preceding the ceremony, Miss Bess Wil-lamson of Pittsburgh, a friend of the bride, beautifully sang "Oh Promise Me." Following this, and to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Prof. Lew Bittner, the bride and maid of honor marched down the large hallway where they were met at the bloomembowered hymeneal altar by the groom and his attendant.

The bride was attired in a dress of white unadorned net, a long white veil being fastened to her head by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid was dressed in a white net dress trimmed in green, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and lavender sweet peas.

Following the ceremony, a light
collation was served to all the guests.
The only table set for the occasion was the bride's table, the remainder of the guests being seated promiscuously through the rooms. The bride's table had covers laid for eight and was very artistically decorated. A huge, wax candlestick, mounting a number of lighted pink candles, sat upon a table of the same color.

DAVID F. YOUNKIN

MEYERSDALE, Apr. 30—David F. Younkin, a native of Meyersdale died Monday afternoon in a Johnstown hospital on his 67th birthday anniversary. He had lived with two sons on the Somerset pike.

He was born here in 1874, one of 11 children, and was engaged in civil and mining engineering until 1904 when he entered the Lorain Steel Company engineering department. Surviving are three sons, three brothers and one sister.

The funeral service will be held Thursday morning.

30 JUNE 1941

DAVID FRANK YOUNKIN

It is both with a feeling of grief and with a sense of the distinct loss involved that we report the death on April 28th, of David Frank Younkin of Johnstown, Pa., who expired in Memorial Hospital in that city on the afternoon of his 67th birthday after suffering severely since Good Friday of a complication of gall bladder and liver disturbances.

David Frank Younkin will be remembered to many of the members of the Younkin family group because of his enthusiasm in the researches of the group, but he was never one of the publicly active individuals in family historical research. Conservative and retiring by nature, he preferred to permit the publicity to go to others better suited by Nature to conduct the public contacts, while he took pleasure in meeting in program committees and informal gatherings. At the reunion he could be found circulating widely among his host of acquaintances. He was faithful and liberal in his financial support.

He was born on a farm near Meyersdale, Pa., on April 28, 1874, the fourth child of Elias P. and Emma Jane (Horner) Younkin, and grew to manhood in Meyersdale-Rockwood area. He was one of a family of eleven, being preceded to the grave by one sister and five brothers, also his father and mother. Surviving him in his own family are a sister, Mrs. C. W. Fernsner of Washington, D. C., and three brothers, Roy E. of Erie, Pa., Henry C., of Meyersdale and Charles H., of Norfolk, Virginia.

David Younkin was married on December 21, 1901 to Margaretta (Krislinger) daughter of Geo. W. and Mary (Kling) Krislinger of Berks, Pa., and was preceded in death by his wife by six years, she having expired in the same hospital March 23, 1935. To this union were born three sons, Frank W., (and Charles E., the former of Bensburg, Pa., and the latter with whom Mr. Younkin made his home of Hollsopple, Pa., R. D., and in what amounts now to suburban Johnstown. His further survivors include five grandchildren, two aged uncles, Denton and Fremont Younkin, whose pictures and biography appeared in the Younkin Family News last summer, and an aged uncle, Milton C. Horner of Meyersdale, a brother of his mother.

David Younkin was usually regarded as a Johnstown resident, having made his home there for the past thirty-five years, his children all being born there and reared in the Johnstown schools. He started to work in 1905 for The Lorain Steel Company, later Carnegie-Illinois, as a draftsman, and worked at this line of endeavor for thirty-five years, retiring in 1940 from his last position of Foreman of the lay-out floor. Upon the death of his wife in 1935, he gave up the large home in Johnstown and moved about eight miles out of the city with his two sons John and Charles.

Early in life David Younkin had united with the Brethren Church, his funeral service, however, being conducted by Rev. C. W. Raley, of the Centennial Evangelical Church, pastor of the children with whom Mr. Younkin made his home. His retiring nature again showed to the fore in his reticence toward joining fraternal and such other organizations; excepting only the Veteran Employees' Association of the steel works by whom he was employed, the Younkin Family Association was the only organization to which he subscribed or in which he was ever interested.

Only self-trained and yet far more than usually skillful in many of the familiar lines of applied mechanics, David Younkin practiced civil and mining engineering, surveying, brick-making and farming; he also was adept at steam fitting, electric wiring, framing carpentry, cabinet-making and plumbing, having built several houses in their entirety from the ground up. His interest in local geography was on a par with his interest in early history and the Younkin family derivation, and he possessed valuable maps of the greater part of Western Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia, certain good portions of which he had at one time or another surveyed or scouted on foot. He was regarded as an authority on Somerset County geography.

DAVID FRANK YOUNKIN

It is both with a feeling of grief and with a sense of the distinct loss involved that we report the death on April 29th, of David Frank Younkin of Johnstown, Pa., who expired in Memorial Hospital in that city on the afternoon of his 67th birthday after suffering severely since closed Friday of a complication of gall bladder and liver disturbances.

David Frank Younkin will be remembered to many of the members of the Younkin family group because of his enthusiasm in the researches of the group, but he was never one of the publicly active individuals in family historical research. At the reunion he could be found circulating widely among his host of acquaintances. He was faithful and liberal in his financial support.

He was born on a farm near Meyersdale, Pa., on April 23, 1874, the fourth child of Elias F. and Emma Jane (Homer) Younkin, and grew to manhood in Meyersdale-Rockwood area. He was one of a family of eleven, being preceded in the grave by one sister and five brothers, also his father and mother. Surviving him in his own family are a sister, Mrs. C. W. Fennner of Washington, D. C., and three brothers, Roy E. of Erie, Pa., Henry C. of Meyersdale and Charles H. of Norfolk, Virginia.

David Younkin was married on December 21, 1901 to Margaretta (Krisalinger) daughter of Geo. W. and Mary (King) Krisalinger of Berlin, Pa., and was preceded in death by his wife by six years, she having expired in the same hospital March 25, 1935. Homer of Meyersdale, a brother of his mother.

David Younkin was usually regarded as a Johnstown resident, having made his home there for the past thirty-five years, his children all being born there and reared in the Johnstown schools. He started to work in 1905 for The Local Steel

Company, later Carnegie-Illinois, as a draftsman, and worked at this line of endeavor for thirty-five years, retiring in 1940 from his last position of Foreman of the lay-out floor. Upon the death of his wife in 1935, he gave up the large home in Johnstown and moved about eight miles out of the city with his two sons John and Charles.

Early in life David Younkin had united with the Brethren Church, his funeral service, however, being conducted by Rev. C. W. Raley, of the Centennial Evangelical Church, pastor of the children with whom Mr. Younkin made his home. His retiring nature again showed to the fore in his reticence toward joining fraternal and such other organizations; excepting only the Veteran Employees' Association of the steel works by whom he was employed, the Younkin Family Association was the only organization to which he subscribed or in which he was ever interested.

Only self-taught and yet far more than usually skillful in many of the familiar lines of applied mechanics, David Younkin practiced civil and mining engineering, surveying, brick-making and farming; he also was adept at steam fitting, electric wiring, framing carpentry, cabinet-making and plumbing, having built several houses in their entirety from the ground up. His interest in local geography was on a par with his interest in early history and the Younkin family derivation, and he possessed valuable maps of the greater part of Western Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia, certain good portions of which he had at one time or another surveyed or sketched on foot. He was regarded as an authority on Somerset County geography.

Drew Younkin

Drew Younkin, a junior business and foreign language major at Juniata College, will spend six weeks of his summer vacation at the Universidad de las Americas in Puebla, Mexico.

He will be taking nine credits during his stay in Mexico, which will include a course in Mexican archaeology, contemporary Hispanic literature, and Spanish conversation and discussion. Two of the courses will be taught in Spanish. Younkin is hoping to become more proficient in Spanish and to also learn about Mexican life and culture first-hand.

The flexible program of emphasis attracted him to Juniata because it allowed him to combine both of his interests in business and language.

OOPS! WE'RE SORRY!

The Republic staff regrets that several faces of children in the old-time school picture were cropped from a photo in last week's paper. Margaret Shipley and Guy Tressler were both missing from the left side while the face of Helen (Tressler) Miller of Johnstown was only half there.

It was erroneously printed that the picture was submitted by Violet Clarke. She was the teacher of the class, and the picture was submitted by Helen (Tressler) Miller.

GETS MARITIME POSITION

Charles Younkin Retires From Government Service

Charles H. Younkin recently retired from government employment after 25 years of service with the Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce. During the past two years he had the unusual opportunity to get his own job abolished; having worked with the War Shipping liquidation administration in closing out the last 200 or more war shipping agents accounts.

Mr. Younkin is well remembered as a young business man here 25 years ago when he was in partnership with Harry A. Baldwin in the present Toggery Shop. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elias P. Younkin, longtime residents of Salisbury street and a brother of Henry Younkin, south-side merchant.

He married Magdalene Bolden, daughter of the late Frank Bolden, and soon thereafter they went to Washington, D. C., where Charles entered government employment. After about six months in the capital city, he was sent to Philadelphia where he worked for five years with the now defunct Merchant Fleet

Corp. He worked for the same agency in Washington another five years and then in 1938 was sent to Norfolk to handle maritime finances. There he was disbursing officer for the U. S. Treasury, paying out all Army Base payments and he collected and paid all monies for operation of Southgate-Nelson SS Co., agents for Maritime.

His next assignments transferred him to Washington, Baltimore and New York. In the meantime he made his permanent home in Hyattsville, Md., and "commuted" to his later assignments.

From 1947 to his retirement from duty, Oct. 17, 1952, his work was in connection with the liquidation of the war shipping agents accounts.

After his permanent return to Hyattsville last month Mr. Younkin commenced working at the Suburban Trust Company of Hyattsville, where he has been put in charge of the comptroller department and general ledger accounts and will at times make periodic examinations at the 12 branch offices of the trust company.

Mr. and Mrs. Younkin have two daughters, Charlotte and Ailene, both of whom were born while their parents lived in Philadelphia. Charlotte was graduated from the University of Maryland and the School of Nursing at Baltimore. She is now Mrs. Benjamin W. Anderson Jr., and is with her husband at Surf City, N. C., near Camp LeJune.

The younger daughter, Ailene is pursuing the same course of study and has yet two years to put in at Baltimore University of Maryland School of Nursing.

In connection with his retirement Charles Younkin had a number of honors bestowed upon him. On his last business trip to New York, his immediate superior in the Maritime Administration division of accounts surprised him with a dinner aboard the S.S. United States, the newest and largest ocean liner. In the first-class-passenger dining room seven of his co-workers in the Maritime district office joined in a nine-course dinner.

On his return to Washington he was again honored at an assembly of his co-workers in the Commerce building, where letters from the Secretary of Commerce and the head of the Maritime Administration were read commending him on his "loyal government service and splendid work and ability in connection with the activating and the concluding phases of the war-time agency operations." He was also presented with a number of fine gifts during the send-off that was in Memory of

Mark Stuart Anderson

The Organ Prelude and Time for Personal Meditation

(Silent Prayer) O God, in Jesus Christ you promised many rooms within your house. Give us faith to see beyond touch and sight some sign of your kingdom, and, where vision fails, to trust your love which never fails. We know that you never leave us; let your Spirit comfort us with this certainty as we live our lives!

Sentences of Scripture

Pastor: Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Praise the Lord.

People: The Lord's name be praised.

Pastor: I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord. Those who believe in me shall live, even though they die, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die.

In Grateful Memory

Mark was confirmed a member of Harundale on April 15, 1973. He served in the Air Force from 1978-82 and lived in Germany for seven years following his tour of duty. For the last four years he's lived in Tucson, Arizona.

Ben and Charlotte received the following from one of Mark's friends in Garmisch, Germany. "I worked in Garmisch when Mark first came to us. He lived right across the road from me in the campground. I can tell you, the news shook the town. There are not that many left, but the word will go around the world to all his friends. I was not there last night, but a moment of silence was given at the softball field where he played many a game." That letter so typifies Mark's life.

We surround in our prayers Mark's family

LOUISA I. McNEILL ANSWERS LAST CALL

PIONEER MOTHER OF THIS VI-

ILLNESS PASSES AWAY
OCT 29, 1925

She Came With Her Husband Ed
McNeill to This Valley in an Early Day—The Funeral Services Were Held Sunday Afternoon Attended by Hundreds of Friends and Relatives.

In the death of Mrs. Louisa I. McNeill we are called to mourn the loss of a good mother and a noble woman. The strong motherly love of this pioneer woman made a model home for her children, a home to which they have always clung, and to which after making homes for themselves they have always been glad to return.

The minds and hearts of the McNeill sons and daughters will always be full of the seeds of truth and love which fell from her hand along the

Louisa Younkia, the daughter of David Younkia and Maria Culver Younkia was born in Somerset county, Penna., October 2, 1847, and died at her home near Onawa, Iowa, October 29, 1925, at the age of 78 years and 27 days. She was united in marriage to Edwin R. McNeill at the home of her father and mother in Somerset county, Penna. on May 5, 1868. To this union eleven children were born. The first child died in infancy. Five other children who arrived at the age of manhood before death again entered this home have preceded her. Culver was the first to be called, who died in 1898 age 25 years. The next to be called was Benton, who died in 1899 aged 21 years. The next was Orthello, who died in 1900 aged 36 years. THE ONAWA DEMOCRAT
MONONA COUNTY'S INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Obituary

People of Local Note Who Have Died Recently.

MRS. LOUISA I. McNEILL.

The following obituary from the Onawa (Iowa) Democrat will be of interest to many Somerset County people, as the decedent was a native of this county—a sister of the late Elias P. Younk, of Meyersdale; of Mrs. V. A. Evans and Benton Younk, Rockwood; of V. P. Younk, Somerset, and of Mrs. A. P. Curotte, Montreal, Canada:

In the death of Mrs. Louisa I. McNeill we are called to mourn the loss of a good mother and a noble woman. The strong motherly love of this pioneer woman made a model home for her children, a home to which they have always clung, and to which after making homes for themselves they have always been glad to return.

The minds and hearts of the McNeill sons and daughters will always be full of the seeds of truth and love which fell from her hand along the years of their family life. These they never can lose. No hand of death can root these out of their lives. They have grown and will continue to grow into the very texture of their character. The threads of Mother McNeill's beautiful Christian life, are woven into the very fabric of the lives of her children. Hers was a life of noble service, filled with self-sacrifice, and self-denials; she was always thinking of others, cheery and happy in her disposition, holding nothing but kindness and love for all.

Louisa Younk, the daughter of David Younk and Maria Culver Younk, was born in Somerset County, Pa., October 2, 1847, and died at her home near Onawa, Iowa, October 29, 1925, at the age of 78 years and 27 days. She was united in marriage to Edwin R. McNeill at the home of her father and mother in Somerset County, Pa., on May 5, 1868. To this union eleven children were born. The first child died in infancy. Five other children, who arrived at the age of manhood before death again entered this home, have preceded her. Culver was the first to be called; he died in 1898 at the age of 25 years. The next to be called was Benton, who died in 1899, aged 21 years. The next was Orville, who died in 1906, aged 26 years. David was next, who was killed in France in the World war on November 11, 1918 a little while before the firing ceased. His body was returned to his mother and was buried with military honors, July 31, 1921, the services at the old home being conducted by the American Legion of the County, the David McNeill Post having been named in his honor and Mrs. McNeill being the only Golden Star Mother of this post.

Six children are still left to mourn the loss of this dear mother, Orville N. county supervisor of this county; Neal E., residing at Tulsa, Oklahoma, a former member of the Supreme court of the State of Oklahoma; Edwin R., district judge of Pawnee and Tulsa Counties, Oklahoma, residing at Pawnee, Oklahoma; Maude, James and Earl, residing on the farm, all being present at the funeral.

Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. McNeill made the trip from Pennsylvania with a team, coming part of the way by boat down the Ohio River and then up the Missouri ROSEANNA VOGEL.

Mrs. Roseanna Vogel, for many years a resident of Salisbury and Elk Lick Township, died at her home in Berlin at an early hour Tuesday morning, the 12th inst., aged 90 years, 5 months and 21 days. She was the wife of the late Peter Vogel, and a sister of the late Henry Kidnar, two well known citizens of Salisbury who died more than twenty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Vogel were united in marriage about 72 years ago. Mr. Vogel preceding his wife to the grave by about 29 years. They were the parents of eleven children, six of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. Edward McQuade and John P. Vogel, of Berlin; Mrs. Cora Werner, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Rebecca Gasty, of Cambridge, Ohio; Mrs. Mahlon Thomas, of Salisbury, and Henry Vogel, whose present address is not known.

Mrs. Vogel moved from Elk Lick Township to Berlin about twenty years ago, where she and her son, John, lived together until she died. She was in feeble health during the last few years of her long life, and almost blind; but she bore her affliction bravely, and with Christian fortitude to the end. She was tenderly cared for by her son, John, who is a bachelor, and was his mother's unflinching support and comforter during all the days of her declining years. The nearer death approached, the closer the devoted son cleaved to her, doing all in his power to make her last hours as comfortable as possible.

Mrs. Vogel was a good woman, and a devout and faithful member of the Reformed Church for a great many years. Her body was taken to Salisbury, to the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Mahlon Thomas, today (Thursday). The funeral service will take place Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, at St. John's Reformed Church. The obsequies will be conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. D. Snider Stephan, of Berlin.

Interment will be made in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery, beside the grave of her husband.

Judge Edwin R. McNeill
as state's Chief Justice

E. R. McNeill, Pawnee Judge heart victim

Edwin R. McNeill, 82, Pawnee county resident and lawyer for 46 years, died at his office in Pawnee early Saturday morning apparently from a heart attack. He had gone into his office to get some papers while Mrs. McNeill waited in their parked car on the street. A client, calling at the office, found him dead.

Judge McNeill served two terms, from 1923 to 1931, as district judge of the Pawnee-Tulsa district and went from the district bench to the Supreme Court where he served six years, from 1931 to 1937, the last two as presiding justice. He was one of three Pawnee county lawyers to have served on the state's highest court, the other two were his brother, Neal E., and Thurman S. Hurst. He and his brother had the distinction of having been the only brothers to have served as chief justice of a state's highest court.

As a member of the state supreme court, Judge McNeill rendered the opinion which allowed OSU to finance and build their Student Union and Library buildings by issuing self-liquidating bonds. This decision has been used, since, throughout the nation for like work.

As District Judge, he began the Pawnee county Law Library in the court house and continued to have an interest in it throughout his life. Known as one of the best law libraries in the state, it allows attorneys in the county or those visiting an opportunity to have all types of law references at no cost.

He served on the Pawnee county draft board (selective service) as its chairman from its beginning at the time of World War 1 until his death, at all times when such board was in existence. Every draftee that has gone into the service from this county was selected by a board of which Judge McNeill was a member.

During WWI, he and his wife furnished a party and refreshments for each group leaving for the service-sometimes as many as 125 at one time. The Red Cross furnished lunch to each to take on the train and Mrs. McNeill was chairman of the Military Relief committee.

His public service was recognized by the publishers of Who's Who, in which his biography appears.

Born at Onawa, Iowa, Jan. 5, 1880, he spent his early life on his father's farm with his 8 brothers and 1 sister. He attended Minnesota university and was graduated from there in 1905. He obtained his law degree at Chicago-Kent College. He and Miss Louise Clark, whom he met at college, were married Sept. 3, 1913. Three years later they came to Oklahoma and settled at Pawnee.

His brother, Neal E., who also served on the supreme court and as chief justice, also died at the age of 82 and of a heart attack. Judge McNeill is survived by the widow of the home, a sister, Miss Maude McNeill of Onawa and several nieces and nephews. One brother was killed in battle in World War 1.

Services were conducted Monday morning, Sept. 24, at the Potteet Chapel by Rev. David Arnold of the First Christian Church of Pawnee of which Judge McNeill was a member. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Pawnee, under direction of Potteet Funeral Home.

DEATH OF CULVER MC NEILL.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McNeill, of Ashton township, received a telegram conveying the intelligence of the death of their son Culver at Gilham, Arkansas. This was the first intimation that his parents had of his sickness. His brother, Nell McNeill, who was attending law college at Des Moines, received a telegram saying that Culver was dying, and before he could leave Des Moines received another dispatch saying he was dead. Nell immediately telegraphed the home folks and came to Onawa. Mr. McNeill found that he could not reach Gilham until Monday so arrangements were made to have the body embalmed and sent here for burial. The body reached here Tuesday night and the funeral was held from the Christian church Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. The pall bearers were, Page Morrison, Ed. Holbrook, Evans Holbrook, Dave Oliver, Harry Whittier, Ora Belknap. Services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Marshall, assisted by Rev. Adkins, of Ottawa, Kansas. After a prayer by Rev. Adkins and an anthem by the male quartette, Rev. Marshall preached the funeral sermon and the remains of one of Monona county's best young men was laid to rest in the Onawa cemetery.

Culver Ruthven McNeill was born on the old homestead in Ashton township, June 5, 1873, and passed away August 29, 1898. He grew up on his father's farm and at the age of sixteen he entered the Onawa high school and was an honored member of the class of '93. On graduating he prepared himself for college and in the fall of '95, finished a course in the Metropolitan Business College of Chicago.

About a year ago he went south and located at Gilham, Arkansas, where he identified himself with a prominent milling company and from there came the sad news of his death from remittent fever. The direct cause of his death being congestion of the brain caused by the fever. Culver was one of the most prominent young men of this community; being studious and industrious he commanded the respect of every one and was beloved by his associates, a favorite at home and at school, displaying those manly qualities which any parents could be proud of. He left the parental roof to blaze for himself a place in the activity of the business world. The sorrowing parents and family have the deep sympathy of all in their bereavement.

The casket was hidden beneath masses of beautiful flowers, the last tribute of loving friends and associates, and the pure white cross of his class of '93 and many wreaths and floral designs were but emblematic of the love which was his in life and the honor and esteem which is his in death.

—From the ONAWA SENTINEL, August 27th, 1898.

VISITS OLD FRIENDS

Connellsville, Pa., April 26, 1938

Mr. E. J. Curotte of Quebec, who was born in Connellsville May 6, 1881, was greeting friends here Tuesday before going to Rockwood where he will visit with friends before entraining for Oklahoma. It was his second visit in nearly 40 years.

Mr. Curotte, son of Anthony and Josephine Younkin Curotte, came here to obtain a copy of a certificate of baptism at Immaculate Conception Church which he said is of great value to him since he is a resident of Canada.

Mr. Curotte had been located in Canada for many years. He came back here about 30 years ago when he helped build a Baldwin automobile at South Connellsville when E. Long was the plant superintendent. He has since been located in the mining business in Canada.

Colleges Theme Of Grace Circle Missionary Soc.

Various colleges, sponsored by the Lutheran Church in the United States, were the subject of discussion under the topic "Christian Higher Education" at a meeting of the Grace Circle Missionary Society of Christ Casebeer Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Thelma Friedline, program leader, also had charge of devotions. Others participating in the program were Edna Zehner, Betty Lease, Pearl St. Chair, Mary Walker, Sylvia Horner and Laura Hoffman. Donovan Claims Fidel Castro Is 'Crazy Like Fox'

WASHINGTON (AP)—James M. Donovan said Friday Fidel Castro "has brilliantly played the United States against Russia, and both against Red China."

Donovan is the New York lawyer who negotiated the deal with Castro for release of survivors of the 1961 Cuban Bay of Pigs invasion in return for U.S. drugs and medical supplies.

Donovan addressed a National Press Club luncheon, and was asked whether he believes Castro to be a "wild-eyed, irrational kook."

"Castro is crazy like a fox," Donovan replied. "He has brilliantly played the United States against Russia, and both against Red China, for some years and with demonstrable success."

Donovan said it is absurd to accept some of the caricatures of Castro which he said are handled about the United States.

"Whether certain elements want to accept it or not," Donovan replied, "the island of Cuba belongs to Castro. It is absurd to say that Castro is a pawn of Khrushchev. Castro has been brilliantly using Khrushchev."

Donovan said Castro is aiming his program at the youth of Cuba, "and they are fanatically devoted to Fidel."

the Illinois Central Railroad.

—Revocation by the railroads of their orders to start posting job-eliminating new work rules at 12:01, a step which would have brought a walkout by the unions.

Because of the lateness of this decision, there was some interruption of service on lines.

However, these difficulties were largely cleared up in the New York area and in Illinois Central territory by midmorning.

The Illinois Central reported its morning commuter service into Chicago was disrupted by reluctance of some firemen to man the trains. But this had cleared up by noon as 7,500 striking train crew employees returned to jobs all along the 6,500 miles of the road's lines.

No Personal Formula

White House press secretary George Reedy emphasized that Johnson has no personal formula or suggestions for settlement of complicated issues.

Reedy said also that the President has drafted no new legislation—such as was voted by Congress last August—to head off a strike.

Should the current negotiations fail, Johnson apparently would have only two choices—let the strike go on or ask Congress to block it by new legislation.

The five-man federal team which Johnson is counting on to prevent a strike showdown is headed by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz. Working with

REV. WILLIAM L. TEDROW

Reverend William Luther Tedrow was born at Glade, Somerset County, Pennsylvania August 3, 1853 or 1854, the son of Jonas and Catharine (Long) Tedrow.

His brothers and sisters were: Norman W. born 1846 died 1896 married Samantha Snyder; Louisa born 1847 died after 1914 married Franklin Heckler; Simon P. born 1849 died 1918 married Effie Marks; Savilla M. born 1851 died 1927 Unmarried; James B. born 1856 died 1918 married Nettie Dalbey; Elizabeth born 1859 died 1908 married Milton Hamilton; Mary born 1861 died 1883; Charles H. born 1863 died 1914 married Margaret Hough; Bertha born 1865 died 1908 married E.L. Dodder (Infant boy) born and died 1867.

Reverend Tedrow's early education was obtained in schools in Milford Township, Somerset County. Having a desire to become a minister, he attended Mount Union Theological Seminary, he became a pastor of the Lutheran Church at Shanesville, Ohio, where he remained for three years.

In 1884 he accepted a call to the Messiah Lutheran Church at Constantine, Michigan, where he was pastor for nine years. During his ministry there, the church membership was nearly doubled. While in Constantine he met Miss Nora L. Strohm, to whom he was married September 25, 1889, and during the following years they had four children: Lola S., Paul M., Luella M., and Emily B.

In 1893 he and his family moved to Ann Arbor, Michigan, where Reverend Tedrow established and built up the first English-speaking Lutheran church in the city, Trinity Lutheran. While at Ann Arbor, he was also instrumental in the establishment of Lutheran churches in other Michigan cities: Battle Creek and Grand Rapids, as well as two in Detroit. He also authored a well-received book, Our Church, which was a history of the Northern Indiana Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Reverend Tedrow and his family moved to Kalamazoo, Michigan in 1904 where he again established and built up a church, which was also called Trinity Lutheran.

He was twice Secretary and twice President of the Lutheran Northern Indiana Synod, and had he lived, would have represented it at the next national synodical meeting. In 1908 Reverend Tedrow received a Doctor of Divinity degree from Mount Union College in recognition of his abilities and accomplishments.

Reverend Tedrow died February 10, 1911 at Kalamazoo, and in accordance with his request made a few days before his death, was buried at Constantine, Michigan. Eleanor L. Tedrow

TEDROW FAMILY

The farm on which my husband and I reside is located in Milford Township along Legislative route #653. It has been in our family over two centuries. My mother, Emma Grace Younkin, was born here on November 20, 1876. She was a daughter of Fremont C. and Malinda Jane (Countryman) Younkin. The farm was the original Younkin homestead. My grandfather Fremont C. Younkin was a son of David and Maria (Culver) Younkin. In early manhood, my grandfather was employed as a school teacher; later, he took up farming. After selling the farm to my father, he and his wife moved to Rockwood. He later purchased a home in Somerset. During these years, he was employed as a night watchman at the Quemahoning Coal Company in Jerome. My father, John Wesley Tedrow, was a son of Hiram and Amanda (Moore) Tedrow. He was born February 9, 1877, near Trent. My parents met while attending Normal School at New Centerville. They were married on November 24, 1900. My father taught school for a few years. Later he was employed as a rural mail carrier and farmer.

TEDROW FAMILY P.393

The farm on which my husband and I reside is located in Milford Township along Legislative route #653. It has been in our family over two centuries. My mother, Emma Grace Younkin, was born here on November 20, 1876. She was a daughter of Fremont C. and Malinda Jane (Countryman) Younkin. The farm was the original Younkin homestead. My grandfather Fremont C. Younkin was a son of David and Maria (Culver) Younkin. In early manhood, my grandfather was employed as a school teacher; later, he took up farming. After selling the farm to my father, he and his wife moved to Rockwood. He later purchased a home in Somerset. During these years, he was employed as a night watchman at the Quemahoning Coal Company in Jerome. My father, John Wesley Tedrow, was a son of Hiram and Amanda (Moore) Tedrow. He was born February 9, 1877, near Trent. My parents met while attending Normal School at New Centerville. They were married on November 24, 1900. My father taught school for a few years. Later he was employed as a rural mail carrier and farmer.

Of the six children born to this union, five were teachers. My brother, Dr. John C.F. Tedrow, is a Professor of Soils at Rutgers University N.J., and Editor-in-Chief of "Soil Science." In addition to teaching and research at Rutgers, he has worked in many foreign lands, Canada, Greenland, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Poland, Russia, Iran, New Zealand, Antarctica and others. He edited Arctic Soils and Soil-Forming Processes and is the author of Soils of the Polar Landscapes. For many years he has served as consultant on soils to courts in New Jersey. My brother Paul, now retired, was head of the United States Soil Conservation Service in the states of Connecticut and Rhode Island. My sister, Blanche Bowman, a retired teacher, resides in Rockwood, Pa. Two brothers are deceased. My brother Frank died January 7, 1979, and Robert died September 6, 1979. I retired from teaching for the Rockwood Area School District in 1976.

On October 21, 1933, Samuel James Romesberg and I were married. Sam is a son of Madison and Lelia Jane (Wechtenhiser) Romesberg. We purchased the family farm in 1950. We have 3 sons and 9 grandchildren. Our eldest son, Samuel Jr. is married to Ruth Janus. They have two children, Amy Lynn and Samuel James III. Our second son, Jack, is married to M. Jean Phillips. Their four children are Jack, Joan, Jeffrey, and Jill. Our third son, Roger married Sally Sue Miller. They have three children, Roger Jr., Melinda Jane and Matthew. The entire family is active in the Trinity United Church of Christ in Rockwood. My husband and I have visited each of the 50 states, Canada and Europe, but we prefer Somerset County. Our roots are deep! Submitted by Eleanor Tedrow Romesberg rett, Somerset county, and followed the occupation of a farmer all his active working life. He married Miss Musser.

William M. Walker acquired his education in the Somerset county common schools, and after leaving school turned his attention to agricultural pursuits, in which he is now engaged. He conducts a farm in Somerset county, whither he removed from Stony Creek in 1903. He is a capable, industrious farmer and his farm is one of the most highly cultivated and improved in the county. In political affiliations Mr. Walker is a staunch Republican.

He married, December 27, 1874, Ada Dunmeyer, who was born March 1, 1856, in Somerset county, Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are the parents of the following named children: Charles O., born October 14, 1877; Orpha G., born November 3, 1885, and resides at home; and Mina R., born September 28, 1893, also lives at home with her parents.

BENTON YOUNKIN.

Benton Younkin, a practical and progressive farmer of Somerset county, residing at Rockwood, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, is a native of that county, born August 24, 1855, a descendant of a German ancestry.

David Younkin, father of Benton Younkin, was also a native of Somerset county, Pennsylvania, born in 1813. He learned the trade of shoemaker, which he followed in connection with farming, and by giving close attention to these two lines of work was enabled to provide his family with a comfortable home. His wife, whose maiden name was Maria ———, born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, in 1815, bore him nine children, as follows: Lucinda; Anna Elder; Gustave Evans, deceased; Elias P.; Louisa; Josephine; Fremont; Benton, mentioned hereinafter; and Allen, deceased.

Benton Younkin attended the common schools of Somerset county until twenty-one years of age, thus obtaining a practical knowledge of the rudimentary branches of study. During his early life he assisted his father in the manifold duties of the farm, thus gaining a clear insight into the details of farming, and later he continued along the same lines on his own account. He has been very successful in his undertaking, and his property is among the finest and most productive in the locality in which he resides. He served as district supervisor of Milford township for a number of years, performing his duties with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of all concerned. He is a Democrat in politics.

Mr. Younkin married, January 30, 1883, Miss E. Witte, who was born in Millersburg, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, February 9, 1857, daughter of William and Martha (Ankney) Witte, who were the parents of six other children, namely: George; William; Edward; Silas; Martha; and Minerva. William Witte, father of Mrs. Younkin, was born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, and was a prospector for coal. The ancestors of his family came from Germany at a very early day and settled in Somerset county, where their descendants are to be found at the present time. The following children were the issue of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Younkin: Elsie G., born in 1883, wife of George Moore, who is engaged in the lumber business; Tillie M., born April 3, 1885; David E., born July 3, 1890; Edward R., born September 14, 1892; ——— R., born May 16, 1897. The four latter named reside at home with their parents.

SIMON P. WEIMER.

Simon P. Weimer, of Rockwood, is a grandson of Henry Weimer, who in early life was a schoolmaster and later was engaged in shoemaking. His wife was ——— Stahl. Henry Weimer died in 1881 in Cambria county.

Jeremiah Weimer, son of Henry and ——— (Stahl) Weimer, was born December, 1827, in Brothers Valley township, and in 1853 moved to Milford township, settling on the George Phillipi farm. He had received a common school education and possessed a knowledge of the carpenter's trade, which he followed in connection with farming. His political affiliations were with the Republicans. He was one of the founders of the Lutheran church of New Centerville. Mr. Weimer married Elizabeth, born in 1826 in Middle Creek township, near Barron's church, daughter of George Barron, a farmer, who was a Republican in politics and a Lutheran in religious belief. Mr. and Mrs. Weimer were the parents of the following children: Austin, deceased; Simon P., see forward; Calvin B., of Los Angeles, California; Cora G., of Connellsville; Jeremiah A., merchant at Friedens, Pennsylvania; and Marcellus, deceased. Mr. Weimer died September, 1883, and his wife passed away in 1889. She was a member of the same church as her husband.

Simon P. Weimer, son of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Barron) Weimer, was born August 14, 1832, at Barkley's Mills, Somerset county, and received a common school education. His occupation in life has been that of a farmer and stock-raiser. He is a Republican and a member of the Lutheran church. Mr. Weimer married, March 4, 1875, Mary K. Countryman, and two children have been born to them: Nora G., born October 23, 1878, in Milford township, died January 10, 1890; and Edward J., born May 17, 1883, in Milford township. At the age of fifteen he went to learn the carpenter's trade and three years later engaged in business as a contractor and builder. In the spring of 1905 his father accepted him as a partner in the management of the farm, and he has since given his attention to agriculture. His boyhood was marked by a noteworthy incident. Having accidentally fallen into Glade run, which flows through his father's farm and was at that time somewhat swollen, his life was saved by a faithful dog, who plunged into the stream and brought him safe to shore, afterward returning for the boy's hat, which had been left floating in the water. It is not difficult to imagine the feelings of affection with which the dog was ever after regarded by the lad whose life he had saved. Mrs. Weimer is a daughter of Jacob B. and Lydia (Shaulis) Countryman, the latter the daughter of David Shaulis. Mr. Countryman's early years were spent in teaching and later he became a farmer. He served one term as high sheriff of Somerset county.

FRANK M. WEIMER.

Frank M. Weimer, a well known and highly respected resident of Somerset, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, was born August 16, 1861, a son of Francis and Maria (Stahl) Weimer.

Frederick Weimer (grandfather) was born in Lower Turkeyfoot, Somerset county, in 1803, and was by trade a blacksmith, an occupation which he followed during his entire active working life. He was a Democrat in his political affiliations. He married Elizabeth Spiker and their children were: John, Frederick, Francis, Rosa and Elizabeth. His first wife died and he married for his second wife Polly Barron, and his third wife was Peggy Brew, who bore him two children: Emma and Amanda.

Francis Weimer (father) was born in 1833. He also followed the trade of blacksmith. In politics he was a Democrat. His wife, Maria Stahl, was born in 1831 in Berlin, Somerset county. Their children: Alice; Cyrus, deceased; Lottie; Frank M.; Mary; Alex; Nancy; William, deceased.

Frank M. Weimer obtained his education in the common schools of his native place and early in life commenced upon an independent career, learning the trade of blacksmith with his father, which he followed until 1899. He then sold out his blacksmithing business and purchased the farm of Daniel Colman, situated four miles east of Somerset, Pennsylvania. Mr. Weimer has achieved excellent success in his career as a farmer, and he affords an excellent example of what industry, perseverance and energy will do toward assisting one to reach a high degree of success. When he decided upon the career of a farmer he did not own a cent. He borrowed money to make his first payment on his purchase, and through his close application to duties was enabled to meet the succeeding payments when they fell due. In politics he has been a lifelong Democrat.

Frank M. Weimer married, September 5, 1885, Miss Emma J. Colman, born February 6, 1864, in Somerset county, and who died June 12, 1903. Their children: Walter, born February 21, 1888; Robert, June 29, 1891; Isabel, October 29, 1892; Julia, September 8, 1893; Jennie, October 29, 1897, died March 12, 1899; and Franklin, August 12, 1901, died September 12, 1901.

PHINEAS C. BOUCHER.

Phineas Compton Boucher, one of the best known and best loved citizens of Grantsville District, Garrett County, Md., died very suddenly last Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at his home, about a mile south of the historic Little Meadows and the National Pike. His death was due to asthma, with which distressing malady he was afflicted almost constantly from his youth until the day of his death. In spite of his long battle with one of the most distressing ailments human flesh is heir to, he bore his affliction bravely and uncomplainingly, and led a rather active life, until too badly weakened by his chronic ailment to do much of anything that required physical exertion.

He was a man of fine physique, and meet him where you would, he was always in a genial mood and liked to mingle with his friends and acquaintances, and always took a keen interest in current events and all questions intelligent, thinking and observing people take more than ordinary interest in. He was a man of keen intellect, and even though he never had the advantage of good school facilities, he was a well-read man, a lover of books and good literature, and had a fine mathematical and literary mind. He acquired a generous store of useful knowledge through his own exertions and was a good surveyor. Moreover, he was a prince in the matter of goodfellowship, neighborliness, and good qualities in general. He reached the ripe age of 72 years, 7 months and 15 days. His fine mental qualities, without a doubt, constituted the one thing that enabled him to live nearly three years beyond the allotted days of man, with such an affliction as he was handicapped with nearly all his life.

He might even be living still, had he not lost two very fine and intelligent sons, Emmons and Harold Boucher, within the last five years, the latter dying only about two months ago. Mr. Boucher grieved over the death of the two sons mentioned to such an extent that it is believed his life was shortened thereby.

He had been quite feeble for some time before he died, yet his death was not expected so suddenly, as his breathing was better shortly before he passed away than it had been for some time, and he passed out as peacefully and quietly as a tired child going to sleep.

He was a son of the late William Boucher, and was born on the farm where he died. He is survived by his wife, Melissa, the eldest daughter of the late Walter H. Boucher, and Alvin Boucher, of Salisbury, who, during her childhood, was always known as Minnie Boucher. He is also survived by four children, namely: Laureen, a clerk for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company at Cumberland, Md.; Alvin, employed by the Interstate Dairy Council of Education, in Philadelphia, Pa.; John, a student at St. John's College, Annapolis, Md.; and Gordon, at home. Mr. Boucher is also survived by four brothers—Dr. C. W. Boucher, Parnassus, Pa.; Dr. S. A. Boucher and Arthur Boucher, Barton, Md.; and Stewart Boucher, New Centerville, Pa.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. K. H. Beck officiating; interment in the family lot in the Grantsville cemetery. The pallbearers were his brothers, Dr. C. W. Boucher, Dr. S. A. Boucher and Arthur Boucher and his brother-in-law, Leslie, Stanley and John Boucher.

fine residence. He also erected Hay's block, in Salisbury. In December, 1904, he opened and has since operated a general department store in Salisbury. He has served as school director, councilman and tax collector. He affiliates with the I. O. O. F., and is a Democrat in politics. He and his wife are members of the Reformed church.

Mr. Hay married, February 27, 1867, Duseilla, daughter of Samuel Devore, of Bedford county, and they were the parents of the following children: David Irving, see forward; Alice, wife of Lewis Keim, of Salisbury; Ora, wife of Charles May, barber of Salisbury; William, of Cumberland, Maryland, married Alice ———; Edward lives in Idaho; Ira, at home; Grace, at home; Harriet, at home; Emma, deceased; Frances (Mrs. Dr. Hunter Perry); Ruth, at home; and Edna, at home.

(V) David Irving Hay, son of Calvin Theodore and Duseilla (Devore) Hay, was born February 8, 1869, in Elk Lick township, and until the age of fifteen attended the public schools of his native place. He worked in the mines until 1888, when he opened a candy and cigar store in Salisbury, which he conducted until 1891. He was then clerk and bartender in the Hay House until July, 1904, when he became proprietor of the hotel. He has served two terms as councilman and one term as a member of the borough committee. He belongs to the Knights of Pythias and the Improved Order of Red Men, and is a Republican. He and his family attend the Reformed church.

Mr. Hay married, March 23, 1890, Edith Catharine, daughter of Alfred Wagner, of Salisbury, and their children are: Harry, Lewis, Edith, Esther, Anna, George, and Imogene.

LEVI LICHLITER.

The paternal great-grandfather of Levi Lichliter, of Salisbury, was a native of Germany, whence he emigrated to this country, settling in Bedford county, Pennsylvania, and afterward moving to Somerset county, where his son, Jacob Lichliter, was born about 1792. Jacob Lichliter was a farmer and married Jemima Campbell, who bore him the following children: John C., see forward; Levi, Samuel, Elizabeth, Mary, and Catharine. After the death of his wife Mr. Lichliter married a Miss Williams, by whom he became the father of ten or twelve children.

John C. Lichliter, son of Jacob and Jemima (Campbell) Lichliter, was born in 1815, in Upper Turkey Foot township, and was a farmer and also one of the first public school teachers in Somerset county. Mr. Lichliter married, about 1840, Susan, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Younkin, of Upper Turkey Foot township, and their children were: Henry H. born in 1841, farmer of Murphysburg, Illinois; Harriet, died in child-

Levi Lichliter, son of John C. and Susan (Younkin) Lichliter, was born November 16, 1845, in Upper Turkey Foot township, where he attended the public schools until 1862. He then began to teach at Walker's Mills, Addison township, and the following year went back to Upper Turkeyfoot township, where he taught for another year, the next year teaching in Middle Creek township. In 1866 he went to Monona county, Iowa, where he taught during the summer in a school afterward presided over by Dwight Hillis, of New York. On returning home he taught in 1867-68 at Salisbury, there being then only one school in the town. He then became clerk in a general store in Salisbury, remaining until 1876, when he taught one term at Elk Lick. During the ensuing twelve years he taught at Salisbury, with the exception of one term, in 1884-85 in Grantsville. In 1888 he established himself in the grocery and feed business with a capital of only five hundred dollars. His sales now amount to sixty thousand dollars yearly. In 1871-72 he held the office of burgess, and from 1880 to 1883 served as school director. From 1902 to 1905 he was president of the town council and since 1876 has held the office of justice of the peace. He is a charter member of Lodge No. 554, F. and A. M., and a Prohibitionist in politics. He is a member of the United Evangelical church.

Mr. Lichliter married, July 11, 1869, Sarah A., daughter of John Smith, of Salisbury, and their family consists of the following children: Christian Stutzman, born May 8, 1870, is and has been for many years with the Merchants' Coal Company of Salisbury; he married Minnie, daughter of David Enos, of Cumberland; their children are: May, Lucille, Florode, Effie, Levi J., Wilbur, and David. MRS. ALMIRA BOUCHER.

Mrs. Almira Lichter Boucher, aged 87 years, 8 months and 9 days, passed peacefully on to her eternal reward at her home in Salisbury, Aug. 14, 1936, after a long illness from the infirmities of old age. The closing days of her life were as serene and beautiful as the long and noble life she had lived. Of the many good women who have gone from Salisbury to the spirit world, none were held in higher esteem than Mrs. Boucher, and none possessed a more kindly and lovable disposition. She now belongs to the ages, but until the last of the many friends who knew and loved her have passed also from earth's fitful scenes, trials and tribulations forever, she will be fondly and lovingly remembered.

Mrs. Boucher was the last surviving child of the late John C. and Susan Younkin Lichter, who were residents of what is known as the Turkey-foot region of Somerset County, Pa., and became the wife of the late Walter H. Boucher, who was born and reared near New Lexington, when both were still numbered among the popular young people of their home communities. To Mr. and Mrs. Boucher were born five sons and five daughters, six of whom survive, as follows: George of Damascus, Va.; John of Brownsville, Pa.; Lester of Somerset, Pa.; Minnie, widow of the late Phineas Boucher, of Grantsville, Md.; Adaline, wife of Prof. George Cochrane of Adams County, Pa., and Miss Elsie, at home. Mrs. Boucher is also survived by sixteen grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Boucher located in Salisbury more than 60 years ago, and during those years resided most of the time in Salisbury, but also resided several years in Elk Lick Township, and were well and favorably known to most of the older citizens in Salisbury and vicinity.

At the age of 12 years Mrs. Boucher became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the village of Paddytown, near Confluence. About sixty years later, after she and her husband located in Salisbury, she transferred her membership to the M. E. Church in Meyersdale, there being no church of that denomination in Salisbury at that time. However, about the year 1882, when the Salisbury M. E. Church was organized, Mrs. Boucher was one of the charter members, and remained a faithful and active member until called to her reward.

Mrs. Boucher was not only faithful and active in the service of her church, but was also at all times active in all things that pertain to the welfare of our country and mankind in general. Her political affiliations were always with the Republican party, but she always had many staunch and admiring friends among the members of other political parties, as well as among the members of other churches and the people of her home community in general, or wherever she was known.

The funeral service was held at the Boucher residence on Corliss street, at 4:00 P. M., last Friday, conducted by Rev. E. V. May, pastor of the Meyersdale and Salisbury M. E. congregations. The floral tributes were very beautiful and numerous. The burial arrangements were in charge of Mortician W. C. Price of Meyersdale. Interment was in the Salisbury I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

Elmira Boucher died 8/14/1935, aged 87 years, 8 months and 9 days.

MRS. HOWARD H. DELONG
166 EAST PATRIOT STREET
SOMERSET, PENNA.

Mrs. Ruth Kuhn
Weaister Mills, Pa.

My dear Mrs. Kuhn: I am glad you answered my article in McConville's News. I am sending you a genealogy of the Krahles as far as I have the data. Will you please trace your line back to Geo. Peter 1745-1818. On page 2 I have the names of his children. Cath. was married to Jacob Right. Can you locate their descendants? Give me all the data on this family, using the form which I use in recording data: - dates of birth, death, and marriages are valuable; names of children, burial places, etc.

You likely are a descendant of 3 or 4 - Geo. or Jacob. I would like to have the data of the three lines, 1st Leth.

Fizlet, 2nd Geo. Knable & Susanna, 3rd
Jacob.

Family Bibles sometimes contain these data. Wills, and DEEDS in the Court House, are good sources for data. Then tomb stone have the dates. If they were married often than once, indicate that; similar to page 1, no. 2. Herman. (1-100) (2-100). Give the children, each union.

I will be pleased to hear from you again. Some of these descendants no doubt live in Maryland. There is a W. M. Knable, age about 65, living R.F.D. #1, Clear Springs, Md.; but I have not been able to get a reply from him.

I remain, sincerely yours.

Mrs. H. A. DeLong,
Somerset, Pa.

LETTER FROM ^{Vol 3 74}
MAMIE Y. PRATHER

309 1/2 Berneda Road, Vallejo, Cal.
March 5

Dear Relative:

Breaking a long silence, I will attempt to give you the highlights of my journey to this point.

My journey westward was very delightful, weather was perfect, scenery was wonderful and experiences were enough varied to keep one interested all the time.

Coming west of Prescott, Arizona, we were 8,000 feet above sea level on a very mountainous highway. We took 2,400 curves in 14-mile ride, then came down 1,100 feet in one mile. I arrived in Pomona, Cal. 25 hours after we left Garden City, Kans. I enjoyed a wonderful visit in my brother H. A. Younk's home in Pomona and with his children's families, who live near. All of whom are typical progressive citizens and alive to all enjoyments of life. I enjoyed them greatly. Met and enjoyed many relatives of the maternal side of my home and then on to Los Angeles where I was entertained in Stephen and Margarette Schmidt home. (Mrs. Schmidt is my oldest brother's child.)

My one great disappointment was the fact that I found a disconnected generation of my own family. They have lost themselves to each other. A great many Younk families here are enjoying reunions of close relatives but it would require time and apparently time to organize a state meeting in California.

While in Los Angeles I had my first experience with an earthquake. Rainy season was a reality here this year. Everyone says the sun bids fair for a chance here now to shine for awhile. (I truly hope so.) I am enjoying travel, scenery, flowers, golf, also have had some very outstanding pleasures while here, and truly hope rain will cease for awhile so that I may enjoy many more lovely times and meet many of the Younk clan.

Respectfully,

Mamie Younk Prather,

Letter by Mamie Y. Prather

Since August the 4th I have been in many states, met many of our family and at the same time did some research work that is valuable as a contribution to family archives. When we are compiling them, the beginning of the emigration of the family to America marks many important events in the family history in America. It was then our name became Anglo Saxonized and different ways of spelling was begun, as the interpretation of different languages begun.

All families I meet are the same genial, progressive, home-loving, hospitable people.

The Iowa Reunion was very fine and showed the real interest as it rained all day but still the reunion was a fine success.

The National Reunion is better each year and makes history as new branches of the family keep coming in to join the joyous throng. I have enjoyed fishing in deep sea, attending the World's Fair International Stock Show and many other things of note.

However, my real thrill of my travels has been derived from the privilege of perusing old documents, reading old books published in the 1700's that prove the real pioneering progressive spirit of our family ancestors.

Very notable is the fact.

12-Ft. Christmas Star Appears

503

By Mamie Y. PRATHER
(Charlottesville, Pa., December 23, 1940)

A beautiful Christmas star, erected high on Fifth street extension, has been attracting wide attention. From Belle Vernon, Monessen and Speers hill the great light, picturesque in its lofty perch on the highest point along the road, is visible.

Charles Younkin, a resident of the Extension, is responsible for the delightful and novel display.

And this is no little display piece, as persons who viewed it last night fully appreciate.

It is twelve feet across and eighty colored bulbs illuminate the five-pointed star.

"What is it?" came calls to The Mail last night. This morning a woman telephoned from Speers to say that she thought "this was a fine thing for the people of Charlottesville to do," not knowing it was one man's way of displaying his Christmas spirit. It remained for a resident of the Extension to tell us all about it. But Mr. Younkin was too modest to say anything concerning his novel creation.

POEM BY MRS. M. E. PRATHER

From North and South, from
East and West,

Once more we meet to laugh and jest.

Round an improvised hearth-
stone, our loved ones meet.

The aged to honor while sweet
childhood plays.

We'll awaken old memories
and recall olden days.

We'll pause for a moment and reverently stand.

Thus honoring Younkkin ancestors of the Pioneer Band.

When time closes or travels
thru memory hall.

The bouquets we scattered, will ever be cherished by all.

A POEM

By Mrs. M. E.
Prather

When lost in thought I search
your face,

And trace the works of wonderous
grace

Engraved by Art Divine—

It may have been by grief or pain

It may have been thru loss or gain

Lines carved there line by line.

You're skilled in Art; that's all

your own,

To scatter sunshine where you're known.

You gladden hearts thru gift of a smile

And make the downcast feel life
worthwhile.

It's the way you do each task at
hand,

Despite your long journey o'er
life's shifting sands,

That makes one pause and ask at
the cross of the road,

Shall we stumble or fall or climb
the hill with our load?

Your life radiates courage by word
and deed;

So loyal and helpful to one in need.

Alert and determined at the close
of each day

To lend strength to the needy on Life's highway.

—Mrs. M. E. Prather.

Mamie Y. Prather

Garden City, Kans.,
August 1, 1940.

Dear relative:

I was certainly pleased to receive your two (2) letters and to know that you had come out of your sick lethargy with renewed energy and determination to press onward with the great work you have been doing the past few years. I know the many, many Younkins in America have been helped by receiving the family paper and attending the different home comings, getting their ambitions renewed by learning and having impressed on them what our pioneering ancestors stood for and the priceless heritage they left for us.

Speeches by such as F. E. Younkin create a new desire to be loyal to the principles for which they fought and awakens the inborn desire to cultivate and maintain them forever. Critics that knock only drive in nails to strengthen and hold us together. Don't let them annoy you in any way.

At present writing I do not expect to be at the National Home Coming this year. I will be there in spirit, hoping for a great crowd, a great day and good time for all. We are all well so far as I know, and best of all everybody is busy—"no summer slump."

I am planning to go West soon and will meet as many Younkins as possible and will work for your success all along the line.

Read this at home-coming or publish in paper. Use your own judgment.

Greetings and love to all.

Farewell Party

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 2, 1938.—Mrs. Mamie Prather of Garden City, Kansas was the week-end guest of Mrs. Nancy Y. Forsythe and her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Earle.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Younkin and son of Masontown, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wiley and daughter Isabella, of California, Pa., Mr. Charles Younkin and Mrs. Luella Shepard of Charleroi spent the day at the Forsythe home. Dinner was served cafeteria style. The fleeting hours were spent discussing the family history. Mrs. Prather, who is secretary of the Kansas group, told many interesting anecdotes of our western relatives and their meeting at Wakefield, Kansas. The picture of their group was very interesting. The hostess had some very good pictures, some of recent date, others very old. This was a farewell to Mrs. Prather, who was leaving in a few days for her home in Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Ford David of Avalon, the latter a grandniece of the hostess, were guests.

12/30/38

Mrs. Mamie Younkin Prather, of Garden City, Kansas, after making a short stopover with a daughter, Mrs. A. A. Loverde, in Chicago, Ill., arrived in Charleroi, Pa., Aug. 11, 1938, and while here visited with her daughter, Mrs. Luella Shepard, and with Charles Younkin, and with other friends and relatives in California, Pa., Connelville, Rockwood, Dushore and eventually on to New York City, where she visited with Mrs. H. Bloomstein, another daughter.

MY FIRST TRIP EAST

As the sun was lowering in the end of a beautiful day (August 5, 1938) I started (by bus) on a long interesting and magnificent journey—that extended as far as Long Island.

Rainy weather and poor connections made it impossible to go by way of Riverside, and be present at the Home Coming of the Iowa unit of this great Younkin Family group.

Chicago was my first stop, where I enjoyed seeing the great city, visiting in the home of my own beloved children, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Loverde and meeting Mrs. Minnie Hall, who is a daughter of the famed Dr. Edwin Younkin who has passed on. Next I stopped at Charleroi, Pa., where I awaited the thrill of being able to attend both the Sullivan County and last but not least our great National Home Coming at the I. O. O. F. Grove at Kingwood, Pa., on Highway thru the endless chain of mountains of which Pennsylvania is so justly proud, is a panorama of beauty of nature's own work.

The Sullivan County Younkins have a very fine well organized Home Coming.

They have been having annual meetings since 1900 and their method of keeping records of births, deaths, marriages and removals are very exact and complete.

The beauty of the scenes along the bus highways can only be appreciated to the fullest extent after being seen as you travel the winding highways over the gorgeous mountains, winding rivers and the groups of lakes and shady nooks. Next traveled to the beautiful seashore home of Dr. and Mrs. Bloomstein on Long Island. I enjoyed the visits in each of my daughters' homes in New York City I enjoyed the many sights, especially the exhibition grounds that are being prepared for the approaching World's Fair. It presents a beautiful sight even now. As I returned west I visited more of our beloved clan of which I am proud to be a member.

I stopped at the lovely country home of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Craig of Huntington, Ind. Every minute was very enjoyable to all. Saddened by only the illness of Mr. Van Swearingen, who passed on a few days later after I had traveled on west.

Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Van Swearingen are sisters of Dr. Norman Younkin and full cousins of the writer.

I arrived back home in Garden City in the wee hours of the morning from a journey which will always be a big part of my life.

Some writer said the farther one travels from anything the larger it gets and that is a great truth. I wish everyone to know that I appreciated the effort made to make my trip a great one and like the little boy who was still feasting on a pocket full of Christmas candy, I hope the same thing can happen again next year.

MAMIE YOUNKIN PRATHER.

A TRIP WEST

502 GARDEN CITY, KANS. December 6, 1938.

During the month of April of this year, it was a great privilege to visit in Wyoming and Colorado. The beauty of nature was greater this year than it had been for many years. The mountains, plains and foothills were alive with blooming plants producing a glimmer of beauty—I visited two very lovely Younkin sisters, Mrs. Anna Beaman and Mrs. Carrie Harris, who live in Fort Collins, Colo. They are of the Iowa and Nebraska branches of Younkins. The lovely day of pleasure spent in their home will be long cherished and remembered by me. In Denver, Col., Frank Younkin and wife extended my son Walter and I a warm welcome. Frank and wife are the parents of the twins who are well known in Oklahoma. They have all stood at the head of the efficient class in all their school work there.

The one twin has passed on, now. The other sister has taken her place in the business world. Frank and wife are living a retired life at 1244 Cal. St., Denver, Col.

Having sent records to our National Secretary I am unable to give the name of the Younkin, who is manager of the credit department of the Texaco Oil Company in Denver, with whom, I enjoyed a very fine visit at Frank Younkin's home.

From there she will come on to Chicago, Ill., for a short stop-over with a daughter, Mrs. A. A. Loverde, then on to Charleroi, Pa., where she will visit with Chas. Younkin, and her daughter, Mrs. Luella Shepard, and grandson, Joseph Shepard and wife, and will stay over for Reunion at Kingwood, Pa., Aug. 20, 1939, thence from there a proposed trip to New York, where she will visit with another daughter, Mrs. Herman Bloomstein.

RECENT TRAVELS

etroit river used as a recreation ground. There they have a zoo, all possible facilities for outdoor exercise and picnics. From there we were driven out to the Ford factory. The plant is not in operation on Sunday but furnaces and ovens are always going and we saw two very dramatic sights. The extent of the factory is best shown by the fact that Ford has 125 miles of his own railroads through the yards and at one point has a tunnel under a river. He makes everything for his cars, having glass factories, sheet metal works, rubber factories, etc., on the grounds. He owns oil wells and coal fields and has refineries at the factory. Naturally he sells many by-products. Nothing is wasted there. They have a way to remove dust from bits of waste glass and use the glass again. We were driven through the grounds in a company car. There are large piles of scrap metal near one building. This is sent in from all over the country and melted down, then pressed into sheets. We drove into the building and saw the bundles of metal put into the white hot furnaces, then saw the liquid metal poured into gigantic ladles. The other spectacle was the coke ovens. They are a series of large iron boxes. A man goes along one side with a tall machine which pushes each oven through to the other side where it empties into another container an iron car like a coal car. This goes along on tracks and stops under a shed. There the glowing coals are showered with a heavy spray of water until cool. When the water strikes the coals a tremendous amount of steam rises at great force and Al just couldn't get over the waste of all that energy. That steam is the one thing they can't save. Ford is fascinated by locomotives and those for his railroad are made in his factory. His latest project is a small powerful tractor to sell for $250. In Canada he has a factory which makes the whole car, and he has assembly plants all over the world.

Our last stop in Detroit was Greenfield Village. This alone is worth a trip to Detroit. It is a museum and an educational institute combined, planned by Ford and dedicated to Edison, whom Ford considers our greatest American. It consists of a group of three buildings which are reproductions of the Independence Hall and old City Hall of Philadelphia, and the Hall of Congress. These contain classrooms, offices and exhibits of early American furniture, plus an eightacre hall containing exhibits collected by Ford. This is divided into agriculture, manufacture and transportation. Here one sees examples of crude wooden implements such as described in the Bible, and a progression of improvements down to modern times. There are hundreds of clocks, lamps, churns, wooden wash tubs, flat irons, etc. There is a very complete exhibit of factory equipment, the world's largest collection of incandescent bulbs, examples of every vehicle ever used by man, from ox carts to airplanes. I enjoyed it more than the Smithsonian. Among the bicycles were a ten-seated tandem, the smallest bicycle ever made which was given to Tom Thumb, and a wooden one. In the same hall were several reproductions of early American shops with the original signs hanging. There were a pewterer's, candlemaker's, and others equally rare. From these buildings we entered the village. It is a typical early American village laid around the village green. Each building is a reconstruction of a famous place and contains rare pieces of furniture and other equipment. There are jewelry stores, a general store with bussels, old valentines, patent medicines, etc., shoe shops, blacksmith shop, postoffice, railroad "depot," houses, town hall, court house, inn, etc. Each building is a museum in itself. One of the most interesting was the old Logan County Court House from Illinois. At one end is a fireplace in which a perpetual fire has burned for nine years as a memorial to Lincoln. At the other end is the judge's bench and at the side of it is a glass case the chair in which Lincoln was sitting when assassinated. Blood can still be seen on it.

On the wall is one of the posters offering a reward of $500 for the capture of the assassin. Here Lincoln spent his first eight years of law practice. The homes are the birthplaces of such famous people as Stephen Foster and Noah Webster. The village would take too long to describe in full. The final group of buildings is the Menlo Park group. Edison's home and workshops. Here are seen all of his equipment, many of his inventions, and enough things to fill a book. He came here for the dedication and re-enacted the perfection of the incandescent lamp, making one just as he made the first one. Everything is just as he left it.

About 3 p. m. we reluctantly left Detroit and were on the final lap of our journey. We paused at South Bend, Ind., for a glimpse of Notre Dame. We had grand weather and no car trouble on the trip, but just outside of Chicago we ran into a heavy fog which made us late and it was 11 p. m. when we completed the 250 miles from Detroit to Chicago. Our whole trip covered about 2500 miles.

N. E. Prather is the well dressed gent which you see walking about the grounds each evening with the air of a millionaire. But if you happened to see Mr. Prather at work you'd find him garbed in paint stained overalls and shirt like any other good decorator.

Mr. Prather is carried with Burke's Shows for the purpose of executing any painting job required. He is able to deliver with any job called for from a simple sign to a sensational picture of a sword swallower or fire eater.

He uses old-fashioned white lead with pigments and varnish.

Mr. Prather obtained quite a bit of his experience in carnival artistry at the famous Coney Island near New York. He worked at the World's Fair, in Chicago, where his home is.

At one time he was engaged as a commercial artist with an advertising firm.

A Wandering Painter

A wandering painter has just arrived in time for the Reunion, all the way from Arizona in his trailer house with wife and son. Wandering painter, artist is all that the name implies. He has painted his way across the United States, paints as he travels, hence the name wandering painter.

Does your house, barn, car or truck need painting? He even will paint the church steeple, redecorate the interior, touch up the murals. This ecclesiastical artist, painter and decorator has traveled in many states doing this kind of work. Enroute he stopped over and visited a sister, Mrs. A. A. LoVerde, in Chicago. In Charleroi, Pa., he is visiting a cousin, Charles Youngkin, and his sister, Mrs. Luella Shepard. He will entertain with a painting sketch at Reunion. This wanderer is Norman E. Prather, formerly of Kansas.

YOUNKIN'S HOLD A REUNION

The first real reunion of the Younkin families of Kansas was held in the Methodist church here Sunday with about 150 present. Many attended regular church services that morning followed by a basket dinner at noon, and a general good time of conversation and reminiscences that afternoon.

During the business session that afternoon committees were appointed to collect geological data of the Younkin "tribe;" to plan for the Kansas trek to the big reunion in Pennsylvania next August, and to plan other details, including another Kansas reunion next year.

The following officers for the Kansas "tribe" were chosen Sunday: Grover Younkin of Wichita, president; Mrs. Mamie Prather of Dodge City, general secretary; and John K. Younkin of Great Bend, recording secretary.

Although all ages were represented at Sunday's gathering, from the cradle up, Mrs. Nealey Younkin appeared to be the oldest, at 75, or at least she was willing to admit her age, though there were others near that mark.

The following article anent the reunion and the Younkin family has very kindly been furnished us by Rev. E. H. Tannehill:

Many gathered in time for the morning church service and listened to the pastor of the church, Rev. Francis Tannehill, a great-grandson of Moses Younkin; preach the sermon. After a bountiful basket dinner all gathered in the auditorium of the church where the "Kansas division of the Younkin family Homecoming" was organized. Various committees were appointed and names secured of families that would plant to attend the "home coming" in Pennsylvania August 22. At least 12 families signified their intentions of going.

While this meeting was in progress the youngest descendant of Younkin blood was born at Henden, Kansas; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Franke, and a grandson of Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Tannehill of Wakefield, a three times great grandchild of Henry Younkin who was born in 1805.

The names of those present are too numerous to mention, but there were descendants of the Younkins from Wichita, Great Bend, Dodge City, Junction City, Clay Center, Manhattan, Ogden, Milford, Oak Hill, Riley, Broughton, St. Marys, Auburn, Topeka and Kansas City.

About the year 1735 a young man named Henry Younkin came to America and settled in Bucks county, Pennsylvania, where it is recorded that he paid taxes. One of his sons was Frederick, and one of Frederick's sons was Henry; who was the father of Moses, Harrison, Alfred, William, Jerry, Silas, John, Ross; Mary, who became Mrs. Will Stewart; Cassie, who married Dan Myers; Hilah who married John Faidley; and Rachel, who married John Myers.

In 1851 the family began a westward movement, led by Moses Younkin who in that year married Lavila Mitchel and moved to Bloomington, Ill. Three years later they came to Kansas and settled in Pottawatomie county. In 1856 he discovered the land he had pre-empted was on the Indian reservation.

He then came to Clay county and built his home across the river from where Wakefield now stands. Not long after this some of the brothers came and a little later the father and mother moved to the same neighborhood. A large number of the citizens of Wakefield and surrounding country and towns are Younkin descendants.

Other families of Younkins came at various times and settled around Wichita, Great Bend, and Dodge City and other parts of Kansas. It is being discovered that the Younkins are quite numerous in the state as well as all over the United States. The history of all these settlers would make interesting reading.

A few years ago some of the families in Pennsylvania became family conscious and arranged a "Home Coming." Last year there were 1200 in the gathering at Charleroi, Pennsylvania. A national organization has been effected with Charles Younkin of Charleroi as secretary. He has been tireless in his efforts to secure a genealogy and encourage reunions of the families in other parts of the country. It was through his suggestion that the Kansas Younkins arranged a get together here Sunday.

VOL 2
#34

Lost in a world of the Saviour's love.

I am safe, safe with Him.
Troubles and griefs cannot alarm.
I am safe with Him.
Only to trust and obey His word
Every day, all the way—
Storms may arise and my soul be tried.

I am safe with Him.

Lost in a world of the Saviour's love.

I abide, safe with Him.
Blest in my soul with peace and rest.
I am safe with Him.
Casting my burden down at His feet
I am safe with Him.
Looking to Heaven in the trials we meet.
We are safe with Him.

Come and forget the cares that weigh

On your heart heavily.
Love that is His will you sustain
All the weary way.
Oh, that we may gather strength from Him
For the long, hard road.
Oh, that our hearts may these riches glean
And be safe with Him.

MINNIE Y. HALL.

Notes From Kansas

This is your opportunity to visit as you have never visited before. A full registration of family addresses will be taken there will be an interesting exhibit sent by National Secretary, Dr. Noble Younkin, of Decatur, Ind., who has been a visitor and speaker at near all National Gatherings held in Penna. will be present. I feel sure that he will have a wonderful message for you all. The major part of the program will be "who's who? and where from?" Many from a distance are planning to spend week end, in Park. Meet us in Clay Center, May 22 1938, where all mid-west Younkings meet. An enjoyable time is in store for all.

By order of Executive Committee

Dr. Jackson,
Mrs. Miller.

Signed:
Mrs. Mannie Y. Prather, State
Secretary, Garden City Kan.

POEM BY MRS. M. E. PRATHER

From North and South, from
East and West,

Once more we meet to laugh and
jest.

Round an improvised hearth-
stone, our loved ones meet.

The aged to honor while sweet
childhood plays.

We'll awaken old memories
and recall olden days.

We'll pause for a moment and
reverently stand.

Thus honoring Younkin ancestors of the Pioneer Band.

When time closes or travels
thru memory hall.

The bouquets we scattered, will ever be cherished by all.

DEAR ONE

Once I thought I loved you,
When stars shone in the sky,
And mystic lights around us
Sang nature's lullaby.

Once I thought I loved you,
When dawn came o'er the hills,
And the changing scenes of every day,
With thrills our beings filled.

But now those days are gone, dear,
My love seems but a dream,
So vastly grander, sweeter,
Does this later loving seem.

And as the years go on, dear,
And Time draws all his fee,
May that love crown with joy, dear,
All days for you and me.

MINNIE Y. FALL.

A POEM

By Mrs. M. E.
Prather

When lost in thought I search
your face,

And trace the works of wondrous
grace

Engraved by Art Divine—
It may have been by grief or pain;
It may have been thru loss or gain
Lines carved there line by line.
You're skilled in Art; that's all
your own,

To scatter sunshine where you're
known.

You gladden hearts thru gift of a smile

And make the downcast feel life
worthwhile.

It's the way you do each task at
hand,

Despite your long journey o'er
life's shifting sands,

That makes one pause and ask at
the cross of the road,

Shall we stumble or fall or climb
the hill with our load?

Your life radiates courage by word
and deed;

So loyal and helpful to one in need.
Alert and determined at the close
of each day

To lend strength to the needy on Life's highway.

reared a large family. She died about the year 1870, at Fishersburg, Indiana. They were neighbors to me in Markleville for many years. His third marriage was to Evaline Ellison, daughter of Rev. James E. Ellison. She was born in Virginia about the year 1846, and is a lady of fine attainments and rare christian virtues. Dr. Cook was also born in Virginia about the year 1826. In politics he is a Democrat of the old school and is liberal in his religious views. I am glad here to notice this most worthy couple, who have so often entertained me at their comfortable home.

ROSS YONKIN ✓

Was born on the 16th of January, 1844, in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, and moved to Clinton county, Indiana, on the 20th of October, 1856. Early in life Mr. Yonkin learned the carpenter trade and worked at it up to October 26, 1864, when he enlisted at Lafayette, Indiana, in Company G, 30th Indiana Volunteers. He participated in the battles of Franklin and Nashville, Tennessee, also numerous skirmishes, and was discharged at Victoria, Texas, October 25, 1865. He came to Madison county, Indiana, August 22, 1868, and located in Markleville where he still resides. He was married to Samantha C. Collier November 4, 1869. I have been acquainted with Mr. Yonkin for many years—as far back as 1868, and with his wife from childhood. She is a member of the Baptist Church and a most estimable lady. I am glad to remember this worthy couple among those I have met.

Barber's Wife Was Thrown From Her Buggy

Yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock as Mrs. Frank Gibbons, wife of a barber employed in the Booster shop on Eleventh street by the federal building, was driving west on the north side of the Union block she was unable to guide her horse and buggy and ran into a Buick machine standing on the south side of the street. The front left wheel of the buggy became wedged between the fender and right hind wheel of the car and the horse took fright. In falling about she was thrown to the pavement and the buggy shafts were broken. The horse was finally caught. After resting in the barber shop, to which she was taken, she was able to go on home alone.

ROSS YOUNKIN'S DEATH SUNDAY EVENING

FATHER OF POSTMASTER AND A CIVIL WAR VETERAN SUG- GUMBED TO ATTACK OF THE HEART.

Ross Younkin, a resident of Marksville for many years, and father of Postmaster John Younkin, died at his home shortly after 7 o'clock Sunday evening. Death was due to heart troubles and complications with which he had been afflicted for many months. He had been confined to the house for some time, and while his recovery could not be expected by relatives and friends, his sudden death coming soon after reaching his chair, after being with the family at the evening meal, was a great shock to them.

Mr. Younkin was a veteran of the civil war, having enlisted in the ranks of his country at an early age. He was past sixty-five years of age at the time of death. He is survived by his wife and by a son, John Younkin, postmaster at Marksville, and a daughter, Mrs. Omer Pitts of Anderson, and several relatives.

Called By Death

Had Planned To Come To Great Reunion At Kingwood, Pa.

Inglewood, Cal.,
10902 Greveilla Ave.

Dear Mr. Younkin:

Just received the card of invitation to the Younkin reunion, and it almost got me down. Norman passed away the 19th of May and he and I had planned to come to the reunion this year. We were buying a new car and taking what we called our Honeymoon trip after a delay of forty years (we were married 40 years the 10th of Jan.) so you see we plan but God disposes and so I am left to battle the rest of the way alone, however I hope you all have a grand time. Wish I could be there.

Sincerely,

Edith M. Younkin.

Donation Party.

The Methodist Episcopal parsonage was the scene of festivity on Monday evening of this week, when the whole congregation called on their pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Jamison, and gave them a substantial donation. Although Rev. Jamison has been here only a short time, and Mrs. Jamison a still shorter period, both have become very popular with the citizens of Confluence in general. The party was a genuine surprise, as Rev. and Mrs. Jamison were entertaining Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mickey, another recently married couple, when the congregation arrived. Some of the latter were burdened with hampers of good things to eat and other things that are very useful to those entering upon married life, while others carried cowbells and other instruments of torture that newly married folks dread. After the visitors and visited found out "where they were at," all went along as pleasantly as the proverbial wedding bell.

Picnic and Serenading.

The Ladies' Bible Class of the Lutheran Church motored to the "Five Maples" Wednesday evening, July 17, and had a very fine picnic. On Thursday evening the same class "hoofed it" over to Charleston on the other side of the Yough and serenaded Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mickey, the latter being a member of the class. The class presented a very nice gift to Mr. and Mrs. Mickey and in return the serenaded presented the ladies with a very nice sum of money.

Death of J. S. Parnell.

J. B. Parnell attended the funeral of his brother, J. S. Parnell, on Wednesday, July 17. The brother died of a complication of diseases on Sunday, July 14. His age was about 51 years. He was born in Addison Township, but had been living in Pittsburgh for a long time. He was never married. He is survived by the brother named and two sisters, Mrs. Hoon and Mrs. Dious, both of whom reside in Pittsburgh. Interment in the Sharpsburg cemetery near Pittsburgh.

Fishing and Visiting.

Charles Newcomer of Dawson, a former resident of this place, where he conducted a jewelry store for a number of years, is here this week, fishing and visiting old friends. He is looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cunningham entertained fourteen friends on Saturday night. The evening was very pleasantly spent, as the host and hostess are very proficient entertainers. Those present were: Messrs. Humphries, Lease, Plumb, Rinehart, Sharer, William Limburg, Scott Smith and Paul K. McMillen; Prof. and Mrs. R. Poultney Travers, of Baltimore; Mesdames Goshorn and Denny, Misses Agnes Straka, Wilt and White. Mr. Rinehart is a nephew of Mary Roberts Rinehart, the authoress.

Coughenour-Williams.

Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Miss Daphne Coughenour and Kenneth V. Williams, both of Confluence, on Wednesday, June 26, 1929. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter E. Brdek, in the First Presbyterian Church, Oakland, Md. The bride has been an efficient teacher in Addison Township for a number of years. The groom is a fine young businessman.
